

NEW BRITISH DEBT NOTE SATISFIES U.S. OFFICIALS

England Explains Conditions She Makes on Dec. 15 Payment Need Not Affect American Stand in Accepting Money.

NO REPLY HELD
TO BE NECESSARY

$95,550,000 to Be Turned Over Thursday but Washington Government Is Asked to Arrange for Re-examination of Whole Question.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Great Britain's explanation that the conditions she is making on Dec. 15 for debt payments need not affect the United States' stand in accepting the money, is considered satisfactory by American officials. This was learned definitely today after Secretary of State Stimson held a brief morning conference with President Hoover.

As he left the White House with Secretary Stimson after a third conference with the President, the Secretary of State said: "The negotiations with Great Britain may be regarded as concluded so far as the Dec. 15 payment is concerned."

Secretary of State Stimson said this afternoon no reply to the British note is anticipated and none is considered necessary.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—A new British note dispatched to the United States Government today said Great Britain would make its war debt payment of $95,550,000 Thursday under conditions specified in its note last Sunday. The note again urged the importance of an examination of the whole debt problem.

"In reply to the note of the United States Government of Dec. 11, his majesty's Government desires to emphasize that the purpose of their note of even date was to state clearly their own position in regard to payment on Dec. 15 and to explain the circumstances in which they had decided to make that payment."

Great Britain in its last previous note referred to said:

"In the view of his majesty's Government, payment to be made on Dec. 15 is not to be regarded as the resumption of annual payments contemplated by the existing agreement. It is made because there has not been time for discussion with regard to that agreement to take place and because the United States Government have stated that, in their opinion, such payment would be a satisfactory approach to the whole question."

"His majesty's Government proposes accordingly to treat the payment of the $95,550,000 as a capital payment of which account should be taken in any final settlement."

An English Criticism.

What the last British note lacks in the eyes of Government critics is a confirmation to the United States that the $95,550,000 payment for this week will be the last Great Britain will make under the present funding scheme. The Government meets this criticism somewhat with a renewed appeal to the United States for an early review of the whole problem. The latest note was made available after a cabinet session at No. 10 Downing Street last night.

MAN WITH PISTOL DEMANDS FLOOR AT HOUSE SESSION

Points Weapon From Gallery; Rush Made for Corridors—Representative Mass Persuades Him to Throw It Down.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—A man identified as Marvin R. Kemmerer of Allentown, Pa., threatened the House chamber with a revolver today, demanding the right to speak on the floor, but threw down his weapon and was arrested.

He was seized by police after disrupting proceedings on the floor and nearly clearing the galleries when he stood up suddenly, waving a revolver at the membership.

"I demand the right to speak," he said.

Members, in the midst of a vote, stopped and looked upward as men and women in the galleries nearby rushed for the exits.

Many members started for the cloakrooms. Representative McMillan (Dem.), South Carolina, was presiding.

Representative Maas (Rep.), Minnesota, shouted to the man to throw the weapon to the floor. He did so and then was quickly taken into custody by the Capitol police, escorted to the guard room in the Senate Office Building.

On the way, he told newspapermen: "I do not represent any organization, but I am for all the people. I had the gun so I could assure myself an opportunity to speak."

When Kemmerer shouted his intention of speaking, Maas, crossing the floor of the chamber said: "All right, son, but before you get the floor just give me the gun."

Kemmerer dropped Maas' weapon and police rushed in.

As he was taken down the corridor toward an elevator, Representative La Guardia (Rep.), New York, walked on one side and the police on the other. Kemmerer appeared to be about 25 years old.

Edward J. Roche, of the Washington Central Labor Union, who was seated behind Kemmerer, told reporters the man threatened to shoot him after he had pulled out the revolver and was waving it in the general direction of the House floor.

MEXICO INDIGNANT, BARS EDNA FERBER FOREVER FOR SLURS

'She Wrote of Dirty Country of Dogs and Fleas Without Good Hotels.'

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 13.—The Mexican Department of Immigration has telegraphed orders to the border not to permit Edna Ferber, American writer, ever to re-enter Mexico because of statements she made in an article in the July issue of the Cosmopolitan magazine.

"Miss Ferber was given every class of facilities when she came to Mexico last spring," said Rafael Perez Taylor, chief administration official of the Department of Interior. "Despite the fact that she was treated courteously and well, she wrote that Mexico was a dirty country of dogs and fleas, without good hotels or restaurants."

The hotel men's association called the Immigration Department's attention to the article and demanded punitive action.

Miss Ferber visited Mexico last February with Marc Connelly, playwright, and his wife. She was received by former President Ortiz Rubio at the same time that Mr. and Mrs. Newton D. Baker and his wife were received at Chapultepec Castle.

TWO TANK BARGES SEIZED WITH $600,000 IN ALCOHOL

Tug Also Taken and Men Arrested at Bayonne, N. Y.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Seizure of two steel tank barges and a tug, one of the barges containing grain alcohol valued at $600,000, in Port Johnson, Bayonne, N. J., was announced today by customs and Coast Guard officials.

Including the value of the three vessels, Deputy Port Surveyor John H. McGill appraised the value of the seizure at $810,000.

One of several men found at the scene was arrested, the others fleeing while customs and Coast Guard agents fired revolvers. The prisoner, who had $500 in his pockets, said he was a watchman and was unaware of the vessel's business.

P. S. CO. GROUP OFFERS NEW PLAN FOR SALE TO CITY

Security Holders at Meeting With Municipal Representatives Outline Their Proposal.

COMMITTEE AGREES TO STUDY IT FURTHER

Percentage of Earnings for Term of Years (Neither Designated) to Be Compensation.

The general outline of a plan under which owners of the Public Service Co. would be willing to turn the company's street car and bus properties over to the city was developed at the first meeting this afternoon of a new conference committee representing both the city and the company's security holders.

The plan suggested by the representatives of the security holders, in general, is:

Title to the property would be transferred to the city.

The security holders would cancel their claims on the property, so that it would be unincumbered.

The compensation of the security holders would be provided by a contract for the city to turn over to a trustee for their benefit a certain percentage, not designated, of the annual earnings above operating expenses, for a period of years.

A percentage of earnings would be set aside annually for replacement and renewal of property.

Details were not discussed, but the Conference Committee voted to make further study along the lines suggested.

It will study the proposal from two standpoints: first, to include possible construction of a downtown subway, and second, without a subway.

The subway proposal is to be considered only if it is possible to finance its construction by a loan from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation under the classification of a self-liquidating project.

As to the second standpoint, the city to which it would be legal for the city to contract to take over the property and pay a percentage of earnings, if any, to the company, was not discussed, but the city's representatives have announced that the view of City Counselor Muench will be sought on this rather vague question, as well as on all the points involved.

Captive Robbers; Officer Who Knocked One Down With Cue

RALPH JARBOE

SAYS 6-HOUR RAIL DAY WON'T AFFECT SERVICE

I. C. C. Reports to Congress on Investigation Ordered at Last Session.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today advised Congress today that the six-hour day on railroads would have no material effect on operations of the carriers, if revenues are sufficient to cover added operating expenses.

The commission reported the results of its investigation on the six-hour day ordered at the last session of Congress. It said that on basis of compensation the application of the six-hour day would add 300,000 to 350,000 employees in a year such as 1930 and between 60,000 to 100,000 in a year of abnormal economic conditions such as now exists.

Summarizing the report briefly the commission said:

"There would be no material effect adverse or otherwise, upon operation of the several carriers, assuming that revenues would be sufficient to cover any added operating expense and still maintain credit."

There would be no material effect, adverse or otherwise, upon the service of the several carriers subject to the same qualifications as shown above with respect to operation."

HERRIOT'S PLEDGE TO PAY LOST IN COMMITTEE

Substitute for His Draft Note Adopted Insists on Advance Agreement by U. S. to Accept Reservations on Debt.

DEPUTIES' GROUP
ADVOCATES DELAY

Deputy Declares That Moratorium 'Broke the Contract' and Tells Chamber 'We Don't Want to Be Dupes.'

BELGIAN CABINET VOTES UNANIMOUSLY TO REFUSE TO PAY U. S., THEN RESIGNS

By the Associated Press.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 13.—The Belgian Cabinet of Premier de Broqueville voted today to refuse payment of the $2,125,000 debt installment due the United States this week, then submitted its resignation.

The Cabinet voted unanimously on the debt after an exposition of the issue by Georges Theunis, who negotiated the debt agreement of 1925.

An official communique said: "The Hoover moratorium and the Lausanne agreement having deprived Belgium of income essentially necessary to balance the budget, the Government considers that these circumstances render impossible the resumption of payments."

"In informing the American Government of its decision, the Belgian Government regrets that no amiable decision was reached previous to the December maturity, while expressing its readiness to offer complete collaboration with a view to seeking an all-around debt settlement and a solution for other problems standing in the way of economic restoration."

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, Dec. 13.—The Foreign Affairs and Finance Committees of the Chamber of Deputies today rejected Premier Herriot's proposal to pay with reservations the debt installment due the United States on Thursday. The vote in the Foreign Affairs Committee was 29 to 9, in the Finance Committee, 22 to 9.

This decision was followed during a recess of the chamber by a vote of a subcommittee of 10 Deputies reiterating that France should not pay until America agreed to a conference.

The Premier, with the backing of his Council of Ministers, had prepared a note for transmission to Washington declaring the intention of paying the $19,261,438 and asking that the payment be counted as a part of an eventual account.

The note is subject to approval by Parliament.

The draft of the note says that, unless a definite settlement of the debt issue can be made France will be unable "to support henceforth the burden of a regime which can only be justified by the payment of reparations."

Advance Pledge Demanded.

Deputy Lamoureux, general reporter for the Finance Committee, later mounted the tribune in the Chamber of Deputies and recalled that the Foreign Affairs and Finance Committees, after having heard Premier Herriot in the morning, had adopted a resolution accepting a proposal to pay the December installment to America on condition that the American Government agree beforehand to a proposal for an international conference.

He said the Finance and Foreign Affairs committees drafted a new resolution saying that as the circumstances had not been altered, the debt account had lost their force and should be the object of new negotiations. The resolution said also that the Chamber could not pay the United States this month, even with reservations, because Secretary Stimson's reply constituted a refusal to accept reservations. Hence, it was announced the committee decided to advocate postponing the payment.

The Government wishes to dispose of the debt problem today in the Chamber of Deputies, and it is realized that a serious internal crisis is at hand, because there are indications that hostility to Herriot's decision to pay is growing in Parliament.

The Chamber of Deputies went

BISHOP CANNON TESTIFIES AGAINST LEGALIZED BEER

Won't Commit Himself on Change of Sentiment but Says Church Hasn't Altered Attitude.

"NERO FIDDLING AS ROME BURNS"
He Argues at House Hearing That Congress Has No Power to Fix Alcoholic Content.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Leaders of prohibition supporters today opposed legalization of beer in concluding hearings before the House Ways and Means Committee.

Among them were Deets Pickett, Bishop James Cannon, J. Mrs. Ella A. Boole, president of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and Dr. F. Scott McBride, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League.

Bishop Cannon told the committee that any member of his church who used "intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes is violating his vows."

The Bishop read from resolutions opposing "a change in the liquor laws," he said had been adopted by the Kentucky and Louisville conferences of his church, the Methodist Episcopal, South.

He presented "the actions of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America," which he said represented about 25 per cent of the Protestant churches in America. He then read a resolution adopted opposing modification or repeal.

"I am not prepared to say," Cannon said, "that there has been no change in sentiment on this question. But I am prepared to say that there has been no change in the attitude of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and of the churches represented by the Federal Council."

He said Whiting Williams of Cleveland, who has studied labor conditions over a period of years, had reported "the volume of misery among the unemployed and rioting and unrest also would be manifestly greater if it were not for prohibition."

"The man rush of certain groups to legalize beer reminds one of Nero fiddling while Rome burns," Bishop Cannon said. "It is ally admitted by the men on the street that beer without a kick will not be sold."

The Bishop argued that "Congress is without power to fix the alcoholic content" of beverages and said drinking places would become centers of vice.

"More Enforcement Troubles." Bishop Cannon said that to modify the Volstead act to legalize 2.75 or 3.2 per cent beer by weight or 4 per cent by volume, would greatly facilitate nullification and greatly increase the difficulties of prohibition enforcement. He continued:

"The absurd claims which have been made as to the amount of revenue the Federal Government might obtain from beer taxes reached a climax in the blatant editorial in Collier's last week, that $1,000,000,000 could be expected in revenue from beer. Such a statement shows a pitifully ignorant and fanatical state of mind."

"Any bill passed by Congress to secure revenue from beer is a direct attack upon the homes of laboring men, their wives and children, and an attack upon the meat, shoe, hat, clothing, drug goods, dairy, soft drink and other forms of helpful, not harmful, business."

Bishop Cannon was asked what the attitude of his church would be in the event the Supreme Court should rule that 3.2 per cent beer was constitutional.

"If the Supreme Court rules that is constitutional, that is the dictum of the Supreme Court but it might be overturned by my church people who drink it and become intoxicated," Bishop Cannon answered. He said that when he was in college he used to help put friends to bed who were intoxicated on four per cent beer.

Against "Licensed Traffic." Pickett, research secretary of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals of the Methodist Episcopal Church, told the committee that his church was opposed to "the licensed liquor traffic, whether that traffic consist of beer, wine or stronger liquors."

Representative Treadway (Rep., Massachusetts), asked Pickett: "Do you mean to say there is anything in the vows of the Methodist Church against the drinking of beer? Aren't some of the members of your church beer drinkers?" "Some, I suppose."

"Are you not giving the impression that the Methodist Church proves your coming here to oppose this bill?" "I intended to give no such impression."

"Then you don't intend to give the impression that Methodist Church vows have any references in opposition to this legislation," Treadway commented.

Discussion over the church vows grew out of Pickett's statement that the Methodist Episcopal Church had more than 4,000,000 members and "members among its members only who have stood before its altar and taken the vows of the church. It is opposed to the licensed liquor traffic, whether that traffic consist of beer, wine or stronger liquor," he added.

HERRIOT'S PLEDGE TO PAY REJECTED BO COMMITTEES

into session a little after 3 o'clock, with Louis Marin, a former Cabinet Minister, opening the debate on the debts. He began with a denunciation of the Hoover moratorium, as he was speaking, the word went about that the Foreign Affairs Committee, having rejected the Government's draft note, had voted to present an earlier resolution calling for payment only if the United States accepted the advance the proposal for a conference to reconsider the debt structure.

Marin criticized the speech Herriot made in the Chamber yesterday, in which the Premier appealed to the Chamber not to dishonor the signature of France. Nobody wants to strike a blow at the sanctity of the nation's given word, said Marin. "What has broken the contract?" he demanded. "It was the initiative of President Hoover when he launched his moratorium!"

There was a voice from the benches on the left. "We never should have voted in favor of that moratorium!" "Where," Marin cried, "can you find a man of common sense who will not admit that our interests have been harmed by the Hoover initiative? France wants to respect her contracts, but everybody must take the consequences of his acts."

Assault Hoover Plan. Mr. Hoover, he said, declared that the moratorium would improve the situation in Germany, but that situation has only grown worse, "and all Europe has felt the bad effects. The British pound sterling, sold for a century, has fallen."

"The entire American press," he declared, "forecast the moratorium. Why? American credits invested in Europe had reached 450,000,000,000 francs."

He read what he said was a report of the Finance Committee of the United States Senate, asserting that as a result of certain operations by American bankers, the committee and the President had warned the bankers that in Germany the payment of reparations had priority. He exclaimed: "If we pay now why shouldn't we pay the next 60 years? We are not bound to pay because of the Hoover moratorium. We don't want to be dupes!"

"This payment cannot be made!" Marin shouted. "The people of France believe that the financial burden of the war should be divided among all peoples. The French people cannot understand why France alone should support the burden."

Marin declared that the French people cannot permit France to be invaded and ruined by American products as compensation for concessions by America. He was convinced, he said, that reparations on the debts would have little practical result, "because Franklin Roosevelt has said there could be no relation between debts and reparations and that readjustment of the debts depended upon the capacity of the paying countries."

The speaker said he appreciated Premier Herriot's policy to stay united with England, but he said he thought England's position with respect to the debt was not the same as that of France. "England," he said, "has a special policy toward the United States, and has a means of pressure which we have not."

Expects Refusal to Pay in June. In this connection, it was made known while Marin was speaking that when Premier Herriot was before the Foreign Affairs and Finance committees he was asked whether he was convinced that the United States, in the event of non-payment would exercise pressure such as the seizure of private property. "As for tariff," he said, "there already is a tariff war. The state of our treasury does not permit the payment of 500,000,000,000 francs."

Marin discounted the likelihood that the United States, in the event of non-payment would exercise pressure such as the seizure of private property. "As for tariff," he said, "there already is a tariff war. The state of our treasury does not permit the payment of 500,000,000,000 francs."

DOG WHICH ROUSED 5 IN FIRE TO GET MEDAL

Buddie, Boston Bull, Ran to Bed of Mistress, Barked Until She Awoke.

Buddie, 5-year-old Boston bulldog owned by Mr. and Mrs. Jake Kettler, 4712 Goethe avenue, will receive a Humane Society medal this week for arousing five persons when fire broke out at the Kettler home at midnight Saturday.

The dog was sleeping in the kitchen near the head of the basement stairs when flames and smoke came up the passage. Running to the bedroom of Mr. and Mrs. Kettler on the first floor Buddie barked beside the bed and barked until Mrs. Kettler awoke.

She roused her husband and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Graeff, who were asleep with their 5-year-old daughter, Dorothy, in a second floor bedroom. Graeff brought the child downstairs but his wife became unnerved and jumped out the window. She suffered a broken ankle and an injury to her back.

Buddie has been a playmate of the child since her babyhood. Mrs. Kettler said the medal will be presented at the ceremony of the Humane Society shelter, 1200 Mack-lind avenue.

The fire, origin of which was not determined, caused $1000 damage to the frame house. Kettler, an electrician, his son-in-law a plumber.

France, and we cannot make any concession, in the domain of agriculture or many other domains.

"There is only one solution: A frank and firm refusal without any delay to the French Government."

Following is the text of the draft reply to the United States as prepared by the Council of Ministers:

"The Government of the French Republic takes note of the reply of the Secretary of State dated Dec. 8, 1932, by which the Government of the United States admits the possibility of 'examining' all elements affecting the French request for revision and for the taking of this request into consideration by the American Congress and the American people."

"The French Government, therefore, asks the opening without delay of negotiations in the direction of revising a regime henceforth in complete agreement with the legal and factual situation created by the moratorium established at the request of President Hoover, as well as with the acts which have been the consequence of this, and as a result of which the reparations payments have been suspended."

"The French Government will pay on Dec. 15, 1932, $19,261,482.50."

"It will ask that this payment be considered a part of the new accord to be arrived at."

"It has the honor to inform the Government of the United States that so long as there is maintained the situation brought about by the moratorium, France, if a new general settlement of international debts is not made, will not be in a condition either really or legally to support henceforth the burden of a regime which in good faith can only be justified by the payment of reparations."

WOMAN KILLED BY BOMB
LODZ, Poland, Dec. 13.—A woman walking past the Government administration building picked up a package from the sidewalk today. It exploded in her hands and she was blown to bits. Another pedestrian was seriously injured.

Police described it as a Communist bombing outrage and rounded up numerous members of that party. They found another bomb in a city hall corridor, but it failed to explode.

UNIONS REJECT RAIL WAGE CUT EXTENSION PLAN

Object to Prolonging Agreement 'Indefinitely'—Would Consider Definite Termination.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—Railway brotherhood delegates rejected today the proposal of the railroad managements that the deadline next Jan. 31 for termination of the present temporary 10 per cent wage reduction of rail employees be extended indefinitely.

Alexander F. Whitney, chairman of the employes' representatives at the joint wage scale conference, presented the answer of the brotherhoods to the executives at the opening of today's joint session. He made clear that labor would not accept an indefinite extension of the present wages, but would be willing to discuss an extension if a definite termination was agreed.

His reply pointed out that the railway proposal made yesterday did not conform to the purpose of the conference, as set forth in the invitation sent out by the carriers Oct. 14.

Calls Plan "Cancellation." "Your proposal of yesterday," said Whitney for the employes, "was not a proposal to extend. It was a proposal to cancel. Your committee has indicated its desire to terminate the agreement at the earliest moment. To agree to your right of termination is to agree to cancellation. Operation of your proposal would be wholly for the benefit of the managements and wholly for the detriment of the employes. It is difficult to believe you made the proposition seriously."

The effect of an indefinite extension of current wages would be to change the present 10 per cent deduction from pay checks into a 10 per cent reduction. "Labor," Whitney said, "is not here to quibble over words."

He suggested that if the railway presidents would continue the negotiations, they must confine their proposals to the purpose of the call—the extension of present wages for a definite period.

Whitney disclosed that the conversations between the management and labor leaders had crystallized Oct. 13 in an offer of the railroads to withhold notice of any reduction in wages if the employes would give assurance of their willingness to continue the existing deduction of 10 per cent for six months beyond the end of the year.

The executives had suggested, wages should be subject to the prescribed legal routine under the Railway Labor act.

The following day, Whitney said, the brotherhoods replied that they lacked authority to execute such an agreement. Then the railroads requested the present conference.

CALIFORNIA LIQUOR PARDONS TO BE 'SUITABLE FOR FRAMING'
SACRAMENTO, Cal., Dec. 13.—Gov. James Rolph Jr. said today he is having special pardon forms printed for 150 persons he intends to pardon from city and county jails when the State prohibition enforcement act repeal goes into effect, probably next week.

"They will be suitable for framing," the Governor said, "and in a few years they will be curiosities."

MISSOURI AUTO CLUB TO SEEK CUT IN MOTOR LICENSE FEE

Reduction Will Be Requested in January So It Can Apply in Coming Year.

Reduction of the State license fees for private passenger automobiles will be sought in the Legislature next month by the Automobile Club of Missouri. The club's board of governors, meeting at Coronado Hotel last night, voted to confer with the Citizens' Road Committee of Missouri on details in Jefferson City tomorrow.

An effort will be made to have the reduction voted in January, with an emergency clause, so that it will apply to 1933 licenses, said Roy F. Britton, president. The license year starts Feb. 1. The amount of reduction will be taken up with the Citizens' Committee and the State Highway Department. The State fee for a large proportion of the cars in use is $18.50 a year. In 1924 the license schedule was increased 50 per cent to its present level.

Britton said that the original 7640-mile State road system was virtually completed and the traffic relief and farm-to-market roads made clear that labor would not accept an indefinite extension of the present wages, but would be willing to discuss an extension if a definite termination was agreed.

His reply pointed out that the railway proposal made yesterday did not conform to the purpose of the conference, as set forth in the invitation sent out by the carriers Oct. 14.

MacDonald was not well and was remaining indoors at home on the advice of his doctor.

His illness is not at all serious, however, and it was expected that he would be able to participate in the war debt debate in the House of Commons tomorrow.

All newspapers continue to spread the debt question on the front pages, upholding the British standpoint but at the same time realizing the difficult position of the present United States administration.

Hopes were expressed that the whole matter would be discussed by the interested parties with a view to subsequent revision of the debt agreement. Considerable interest was displayed in a debate scheduled for tomorrow in the House of Commons in which many members were expected to "let off steam."

Cabinet members expressed the wish that it be conducted with moderation and an absence of statements which might create ill-feeling in the United States.

Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, made a plain in an address in Parliament yesterday that the opinion in that body would not alter the decision of the Government on the debt question.

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Dec. 13.—The Czechoslovakian Government announced today that it will pay in gold the debt installment of $1,500,000 due the United States on Thursday of this week. The gold will be withdrawn from the account which the Czech National Bank has in New York.

FOG COVERS SOUTH ENGLAND
Traffic Is Impeded From Yorkshire to Devonshire.
LONDON, Dec. 13.—Large sections of Eastern and Southern England were hidden under a pall of fog. The "Blackout" extended from Yorkshire to Devonshire. London, Birmingham and Oxford were particularly affected, while various other localities experienced patches of fog of varying density, with visibility in some cases limited only to a few yards.

Reports of accidents due to the fog were being received with increasing frequency. There was one fatality when a railway worker was hit by a train. Off the Devon coast a lifeboat rescued 24 men from the small passenger steamer Canabank, which had been forced ashore by the fog near Salcombe.

It's Science, Not Monkey Business

THIS puzzled monkey, "sitting in a draft," is giving scientists a new measuring stick for human health. The experiment is at the Carnegie Institution in Washington. A current of air flows slowly through the glass cage, the monkey breathes some oxygen from the air and breathes out carbon dioxide. Measurement of the monkey's heat production—in other words, its basic metabolism.

MRS. SARAH FOX, COUSIN OF LINCOLN, DIES AT 91
She Succumbs to Infirmities of Age at Son's Home in Carsonville.

Mrs. Sarah Louisa Fox, 91 years old, a second cousin and step-niece of Abraham Lincoln, died yesterday of infirmities at the home of her son, Alfred N. Fox, 8755 North Bridge road, Carsonville, where she resided. She was the widow of Merrill Fox, who died about 50 years ago. She had lived in St. Louis since 1903.

Her relationship with Lincoln was through both parents. Her father, Squire Hall, who lived in a log cabin near Farmington, Ill., which Lincoln was said to have helped build, was a nephew of Lincoln's mother, the former Nancy Hanks. Mrs. Fox's mother was a daughter of Sarah Johnston, Lincoln's step-mother.

Mrs. Fox spoke of her famous kinsman as "Uncle Abe" and frequently told of his visits to her home when she was a girl. She said he attended her wedding shortly before he was elected President in 1860, and paid her family a farewell visit before his inauguration.

Besides her son, Mrs. Fox is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Lillian Walton, 4721 Washington boulevard; Mrs. Hattie Fuller, 4011 West Pine boulevard, and Mrs. Belle Kanney, Chicago. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Harrigan & Sheehan parlors, 4415 Washington boulevard, with burial in Valhalla Cemetery.

ROBBER WHO HIRED AUTO KILLS ONE MAN, WOUNDS MARSHAL

Here Shoots Way Free in Garage at Sikeston, Mo.

HAD BEEN HALTED
BY STATE PATROLMAN
Officer Sought to Question Him About Accident at Fredericktown—Woman
Companion Held.

A man who stole a rented automobile in St. Louis last night was shot early today at Sikeston, Mo., 190 miles south, but shot his way out, killing a garage mechanic
and wounding the Night Marshal.
His companion, a young woman,
is in custody.

The mechanic, Cornelius Reed, 28 years old, died at 12:30 p. m., nine hours after being shot in the abdomen. He was employed at the Bessiebaugh Brothers Garage, was married and had two children. Gib Daniels, the Marshal, 50 years old,
was shot in the left hip and left arm.

The woman held has refused to talk other than to give a name which Sikeston authorities think is fictitious and to say, "I don't remember."

Driver Held Up Here.
The pair's night of criminal activity started at 8:30, when they appeared at the Buchanan Hotel, St. Louis, and rented a car. The man asked for a driver, saying he was not familiar with St. Louis.

Paul Schmiedberg, 31, Carrollton, Mo., was hired. The car was a 1932 Buick. It was driven west in Washington avenue
to the 2800 block where the man
produced a revolver and said, "Now drive as fast as you can." The car was directed to go west to Grand boulevard, then south. In the 5200 block of South Grand the driver was ordered to get out.

The driver charged north, and by the way, now do you go to the Free State from here?" asked the man.
Schmiedberg told him the man drove away, headed south in Grand boulevard in the stolen Buick
sedan. At Fredericktown, Mo., about 120 miles south, the Plymouth collided with a truck and State Highway Patrolman Howard
Turnbull questioned the driver
about the car which, by that time, bore Mississippi license plates.

Patrolman Turnbull permitted the man to proceed, but, after consideration, became suspicious of the coupons and telephoned State Highway Patrolman Hubert Brooks
at Sikeston. Brooks and Daniels went out to the intersection of State highways 60 and 61 at the junction of Sikeston, where, at 3
p. m., the Plymouth with Mississippi plates stopped for gasoline.

Not known in Mississippi.
The driver told Brooks and Daniels that he was J. C. Symmonds, of Clarksdale, Miss., and Brooks telephoned police there to check his story. Police in Clarksdale told they did not know him and that the license plates had not been issued in Coahoma County,
of which Clarksdale is the county seat. So Brooks and Daniels told the driver to accompany them into Sikeston. It was cold at the filing station and they wanted to question him in a more comfortable place.

In the garage, Brooks said, the driver walked toward a stove, then suddenly whipped out a pistol and shot Daniels, knocking him down.
He shot Reed, who was knocked under a bench. After exchanging shots with Brooks, the driver fled through parked automobiles and jumped out a rear window.

The woman, who said she was
Mrs. Pearl Symmonds, is about 28 years old, 5 feet 5 inches tall, and weighs 115 pounds. Brooks described her as a "real Southern girl with a down-south drawl." The futurity, he said, is about 6 feet tall, weighs about 220 pounds, "dark-headed, dark, snappy eyes. He was wearing a very dark grey overcoat, a dark suit and a black hunting cap."

Officers of the county, accompanied by about 75 citizens, searched this morning with bloodhounds, but were unsuccessful because of snow and steel which fell shortly after the slayer escaped.

License On Auto Stolen in Memphis, Tenn.
By the Associated Press.
HERNANDO, Miss., Dec. 13.—
Deputy Sheriff D. R. Lauderdale said today that Mississippi automobile license plate 50-321 was stolen
about three or four months ago
from the parked automobile of H.
E. Matlock while Matlock was visiting at Memphis, Tenn. Lauderdale said Matlock has been using a substitute tag bearing another number since the theft.

TRUCK HITS TRAIN; TWO KILLED
CHRISMAN, Ill., Dec. 13.—Jesse Bos, 58 years old, and Bud Thompson, 62, of Murdock, Ill., were killed
today when their truck struck a Big Four freight train near here.
They were en route to Indianapolis with a load of hogs, 13 of which were killed. Two coal cars were derailed.

Striking Figures in the Wanderwell Mystery

LEFT, MARGARET HALL of British Columbia, fishing from the deck of the yacht Carma, and, right, EUGENIA NABEL, former New York actress, polishing the ship's bell. Both were members of the strange-ly assorted "crew" of the yacht, which was ready to leave on a world cruise when its skipper was murdered.

YOUNG ROBBERS CONFESS MURDER IN STORE HOLDUP

holdup men," he told the manager.
"Take a look at these descriptions."
The manager, loath to agree with his conclusion, finally agreed to inspect their room. At this juncture the two boys left the hotel, and the manager and an employee went immediately to their room. In a bureau drawer they found ammunition for a .32-20 caliber revolver,
a spool of picture wire and six
three-foot lengths of the wire, conveniently coiled so they could be slipped into a pocket. The manager went at once to Chief of Police Gerk with his discovery.

Seven detectives searched the room, confirmed the findings and under a blanket on the bed found a .32-20 caliber revolver. In a closet they found two new topcoats and two new hats. Three grips were cramped with new clothing. The manager had noted that the two youths frequented a pool hall at 2342 Olive street, and there the detectives found them.

Urban reached for his coat pocket
as the detectives surrounded the table. Detective William Hefele snatched a cue from the table and floored him with it. From his pocket a detective took a .32 caliber revolver. The youths were taken to Police Headquarters and their confessions quickly followed.

Obviously dazzled by the attention they were receiving, Jarboe told detectives he was wounded in a burglary 10 months ago, had been discharged after nine months,
has jumped his bonds. Urban,
equally boastful, said he had served 12 months in the Lancaster (O.) reformatory for auto theft on a five-
-three-year sentence and had been paroled.

"We decided to go to St. Louis for some holdups," Jarboe volunteered. "We got here last Thursday on a bus, pulled a holdup, that night, and have pulled one every night since."

They were able to move about the city with facility because Jarboe had lived here until three and a half years ago when his parents, with whom he resided at Eighteenth and Lami streets, separated. At that time, he left Mc-Kinley Intermediate School, where he had been a student for six months, and moved with his mother to Toledo.

List of Crimes Here.
Their first crime here was the robbery of Joseph Devoti in his grocery at 3830 Olive street, in which they got $80 after tying him with picture wire. The next night
they robbed the Grant drug store,
a short distance away, at 8715 Olive street, bound the proprietor, Arthur Cassidy, and two employees, and fled with $10 and the .32-20 revolver
found in their room.

Last Thursday night they robbed
the grocery and meat market of George Jacob Michael at 1803 Lafayette avenue, took $57 from the ill and the butcher, Henry C.
Mueller.

"What did you boys do with my purse?" Mueller demanded after he had identified them. "It had some identification cards in it."
"Oh, that," Jarboe replied. "I dropped it on an Olive street car.
You ought to be able to get it at the car barn."

Friday night they took $40 to $50
from the drug store of Stephen Guttman at 3000 Olive street, and Saturday they held up the drug store of Isadore Poger at 4273 Delmar boulevard.

The Poger robbery was a merry affair in retrospect to the two hold-up men. They laughed and joked with their victims as the story was told, how they had tied up the proprietor, his brother and several customers, in a back room, how Jarboe had slipped off his coat and in the guise of a clerk had sold a nagazine to a woman customer,
and some tobacco to a boy.

George W. Kneff, 4288 Delmar boulevard, laughed with the prisoners as they recalled how they had asked him, a customer in the store,

PLAINTIFF IN ALIENATION SUIT DIVORCED BY WIFE

Mrs. David Solomon Obtains Decrees, Charging Husband Struck and Humiliated Her.

Mrs. Ann Solomon, 5649A Wells avenue, obtained an uncontested divorce today from David Solomon, unemployed shoe salesman, who after his wife sued him last October, filed a $25,000 alienation suit against Will Fishback, department manager in a downtown store where Mrs. Solomon was formerly employed as a clerk.

Samuel White, attorney for Solomon, announced after granting of the divorce, that the alienation suit would be dismissed on payment of his fee by Fishback. Solomon had charged that Fishback "showered Mrs. Solomon with numerous and expensive gifts," including a fur scarf, and had persuaded her "to transfer her love and affection"
from her husband to him.

In the brief divorce hearing, Mrs.
Solomon testified to general incen-
sation, alleging her husband occasionally struck her and humiliated her by charging improper associations with other men. She was allowed custody of their 6-year-old son, Hubert, and $5 a week for his support. The Solomons were married in 1924 and repatriated last Oct. 5.

REPORTS FINDING NEW EVIDENCE IN YACHT MURDER

Prosecutor Will Name W.
J. Guy in Complaint—Is Not Convinced of 'One Man Job.'

By the Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 13.—Discovery of important "new evidence"
was announced by District Attorney Burton Fitts today in the Capt. Walter Wanderwell murder.

Fitts said he would issue at once a murder complaint against William James Guy, 24-year-old Britisher. He commented this would prevent attorneys seeking the release of Edward de Larn, Indian aviator, and his mechanic, Ralph Dunlap, both of whom have been held as material witnesses in connection with the death of the adventurer.

Fitts said he was not convinced
the killing of Wanderwell the night of Dec. 5 aboard his around-the-world yacht Carma was a "one-man job" and called all witnesses to his office today for a new questioning.
De Larn had been identified by W. C. Hinton, Long Beach streetcar conductor, as a man who attempted to board his car on the Long Beach Seventh street bridge
about one-half mile from the P. & O. docks, scene of the slaying, the night of the shooting.

De Larn told authorities Guy spent all of the night of Dec. 5 at his home in Glendale, almost 30 miles from Long Beach, and that he himself was in the house.

John Seastrom and Tom Bridgeford, friends of De Larn's daughter, told Long Beach police Guy was not at the Glendale home. The boys were attending a party.
Capt. William Bright, head of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's office homicide squad, said he had plans for taking all of the alibi witnesses for Guy before the county grand jury.

"Putting these witnesses under oath before the grand jury may clear up one of the mysteries surrounding Guy's movements and whereabouts at the time of the shooting last Monday night," said Bright.

Capt. Wanderwell was buried at sea yesterday from the deck of his yacht, aboard which he had planned a world cruise with a group of men and women he had recruited by advertising in newspapers. The adventurers, who included Lord Edward Montagu, son of the Duke of Manchester, all attended the funeral. Col. Arthur Goebel, aviator, and a friend of Wanderwell, also was aboard the yacht at the final rites.

MAN HANGS SELF WITH BELT IN ALTON POLICE STATION
John Linn, 30 years old, was found dead this morning in the detention room of the Alton Police Station, where he had been permitted to spend the night. He had apparently strangled to death after putting a leather belt around his neck and fastening the belt to a wire grill in the room.

Linn had left the home of his mother, Mrs. Emil Fisher, at Plaza Chautauque, yesterday, and last night applied at St. Anthony's infirmity in Alton for protection
from a gang he said was after him.
Infirmity authorities referred him
to police, who allowed him to stay in the jail overnight. They found his body this morning.

Until two years ago Linn had been employed as an ice truck driver in St. Louis. He is survived by his mother and three brothers and three sisters. One sister, Mrs. Earl Geter, lives at 1621A Hodiament avenue.

$187,400 NEW RELIEF GIFTS SEND THE FUND TO $1,304,300; DRIVE TO RUN INDEFINITELY

Only Third of Amount Sought Has Been Pledged, But Chairman Is Confident of Reaching Goal.

Pledges of $187,400 to the United Relief Campaign, reported today by solicitors at their meeting at Hotel
Statler, increased the total to $1, 304,300.

The total to date is one-third of the $3,850,000 sought. Two-thirds of the period originally set for the campaign has elapsed. The appeal which began Dec. 4 and was to have ended Thursday, will be continued indefinitely.

Under the "minute plan," funds
now pledged would provide for the needs of the 82 participating agencies up to May 4. This is based on the calculation that private giving must supply $733 for each minute
the agencies are in operation. This is in addition to funds available from the $4,600,000 relief bond issue.

The total subscriptions to date include $896,467 from the large subscriptions division; $224,490 from the employee division; $155,143 from the general division and $27,000
from the county division.

Frank O. Watts, general chairman, still confident the goal can be attained, has asked the campaign cabinet to meet Thursday night at his home, 23 Portland place. This group will go over the results and decide on a plan of action.

Meanwhile, cold weather has driven additional hundreds to the relief agencies which are now caring for 27,000 families. Provident Association, largest of the group, reported it spent $5000 last week for coal, as much as was spent for all relief purposes in a week of normal times.

Acute Suffering Reported.
The staff at Citizens' Application Bureau, 1508 Washington avenue, reported several instances of acute suffering which came to their attention yesterday. A relief worker was sent to the home of a mother with five small children, whose father was reported missing, and found they had no food or fuel. The father of two children, who had tramped the railroad tracks all night picking up bits of coal, was another applicant.

Charles Nagel, former president of the Washington University Corporation and a recently named president of United Relief, Inc., the corporation formed to administer
funds raised in the campaign,
spoke at today's meeting of campaign workers.

Other officers of United Relief,
Inc., are: J. Harry Reame and Charles M. Rice, vice-presidents;
A. L. Shapleigh, treasurer, and John J. Nangle, secretary. The directors include Mayor Miller, the Rev. John J. Butler, Robert L.
Lund, President Neun of the Board of Aldermen, Comptroller Nolte, Frank O. Watts, Sidney Maestre,
Aaron S. Raub, Leo C. Fuller, William L. Igoe, Elhan A. H. Shepley, Isadore Mathes, Harry B. Wallace,
Julius Glaser, Frederick P. Ken-
kel, Frank C. Rand, John E. Riley, Ernest W. Stix, Edwin H. Steadman and Edwin H. Wagner.

Up to Community, Nagel Says.
Nagel said he welcomed his selection as president of United Relief, Inc., because it had been his hope ever since the first Community Fund campaign was held that some day all charities in St. Louis would join together to relieve distress.

"It is not the suffering of this woman or that man with which we are concerned," he said, "it is the suffering of a community and as a community we must meet that situation."
"Not tolerance alone, but respect
and good will are the foundations of our institutions and we have built this organization on a proper basis. Without that inspiration we cannot win. With it we cannot lose. We are determined to make good the promise that Mr. Watts has made to this community."

One team reported it had raised 100 per cent of its quota. That was the group headed by R. Morton Moss of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. Not far behind was the report of Boyle Rhodes and Girard
C. Varnum for the district west of Clayton, which showed $6000 of a $6000 quota already subscribed.

Employees of the Western Supplies Co., 2920 Cass avenue, subscribed $925, and this was matched by an equal donation from the company.

Minute Apiece at the Firm.
Employees of 14 banks, which have reported so far have pledged $27,874, or 30 per cent of the quota
for the financial unit, with 30 bankers still to be heard from. The average contribution of 227 employees of Union Electric Light & Power Co. was $7.40, a little more than a relief minute, which is figured at $7.33.

Dean Sidney Sweet of Christ Church Cathedral, will speak in behalf of the campaign tomorrow afternoon at 4:45 o'clock over station KWK, and an all-sport program will be broadcast by KMOX at 4:15 p. m. tomorrow. Among those who are to talk are Bennie La Presta, St. Louis University football player; George Sialer, former first baseman for the St.
Louis Browns; and Fred Drewes, district tennis champion.

NO FURTHER CUT IN TEACHERS' PAY LIKELY, ROLLINS DECLARES

Head of Board of Education Expects 10 Pct. Reduction to Be Continued Next Year, However.

There is no reason to fear a further reduction of teachers' salaries, President Rollins of the Board of Education told the Public School Patrons' Alliance last night, in a discussion of school finances. Teachers and other school employees have accepted a voluntary reduction of 10 per cent in their pay for the fiscal year ending next June 30. Rollins, in his speech, did not refer to the possibility of continuing the curtailment in the next fiscal year, but said today he feared that would be necessary.

By careful assignment of school space and the new policy of school grades for the lower high school grades, the board ought to be able to get along without new buildings until the depression is over, Rollins told the alliance. He said a bond issue probably would be needed for new buildings eventually.

The alliance appointed a committee to ask the Board of Education tonight to delay converting the vacant Franklin School, 814 North Nineteenth street, into a branch high school. The alliance objects to the location, feeling a place farther west would be more convenient and would serve more pupils. It suggested that the Glasgow School, 1415 North Garrison avenue, might be a better site. The board has prepared to make Glasgow School a Negro grade school next month.

Rollins, a member of the alliance since 1917 and its former president, received a scroll testifying to his interest in the schools.

SUES FOR RECEIVERSHIP FOR THE HUTCHESON ARMS

Holder of Bonds He Alleges Are in Default Begins Action Against Apartment House.

Suit for a receiver for Hutcheson Arms Apartments, Grand and Russell boulevards, was filed in Circuit Court yesterday by Joseph R. O'Hanlon, owner of $2000 in first mortgage bonds which he alleges are in default.

Circuit Judge Hall set the hearing for Thursday. The building is 11 stories high and contains 65 apartments. Title is held by the Hutcheson Arms Corporation, of which Robert Hutcheson is president. Hutcheson and his wife bought the building in July, 1928, before it was completed, and issued $225,000 in first mortgage bonds.

O'Hanlon alleges 1931 taxes have not been paid and that no provision has been made for paying 1932 taxes, which become delinquent next month. Interest was not paid when due Dec. 1, his suit alleges, and $12,500 in bonds, which matured then, were not retired.

MAN-FOUND UNCONSCIOUS ON HIGHWAY NO. 66 DIES

Victim of Exposure and Starvation. Coroner at Sullivan (Mo.) Says.

A man, found unconscious by a tourist yesterday on Highway No. 66, a mile east of Sullivan, Mo., died as he was being taken to a doctor in the town. According to Coroner Thomas P. Shaffer of Franklin County, death was due to exposure and starvation.

The man was about 80 years old, weighed 150 pounds and was 5 feet 6 1/2 inches tall. A meal ticket in his pocket, issued by the Salvation Army in Baltimore, Md., bore the name Peter Newman, 45 years old, 109 Alsquith street, Baltimore. The card was numbered 4838.

ROBBERS KNOCK DOWN WOMAN, SEIZE $400

Payroll of Pine Street Chemical Firm Stolen From Cashier.

Mrs. Ruth Dreese, cashier of the Puro Co. Inc., 3107 Pine boulevard, was robbed of her purse, containing a $400 payroll, as she was returning to her office from a bank early this afternoon.

She said she was about 100 feet west of the company building when two well-dressed young men came up behind her. One seized the purse and the other knocked her down. They fled through a hallway. The Puro Co. is a chemical concern.

Mrs. Edna Hollweg, proprietor of a beauty shop at 4282A Arsenal street, bit a robber on the hand as he was searching her at the shop at 10 a. m. today. The robber howled in pain, she said, but escaped with her purse and $36 which were in her dress.

She was alone when the robber and an accomplice entered. One drew a revolver and after demanding her money, they searched the shop. One then searched her. Mrs. Pearl Harrington, 32 years old, fought off a Negro robber she found in her house, 3715 Marcus avenue, on returning from a neighborhood store yesterday afternoon. The robber stood behind the door as she entered, then hit her with his fist, choked her and demanded to know where her money was. She broke away and ran toward a dresser drawer, calling out, "I'll shoot you!" The man, apparently believing she had a weapon, fled from the house without taking anything. He had entered through a basement window. Samuel Newman, proprietor of a dry goods store at 1800 South Ninth street, and two clerks were held up last night by three men, one with a revolver. One robber forced Newman to get into a car and drive to the 2221 Locust boulevard, reported to police the theft of $431 from a safe in the office between 9:30 p. m. yesterday and 7 a. m. today. A Negro porter discovered the safe open when he arrived for work. Louis said there was no evidence that anyone had broken into the building and that the safe was not damaged. The man and the employees to sit on a bench and the others looted the safe of $200 and cash register of $50. They also took 12 pairs of socks, six shirts and six mufflers. Miss Ida Schultz, clerk, was in charge of the Weisberg grocery, 2039 Biddle street, when a Negro ordered butter last night. She started to get it when he showed a hand in his pocket as if to give him the money in the cash register. She gave him $5. As Miss Alice Murphy, 3833 44th Pine boulevard, opened her purse to get her door key, someone struck her in the back, took the purse and fled before she saw him. The purse contained only 20 cents, the key and a rosary.

MRS. JUDD DENIED NEW TRIAL, PLANS FURTHER APPEALS

Woman Convicted of Murder and Sentenced to Be Hanged Feb. 17 Will Ask for Rehearing on Motion.

By the Associated Press.
FLORENCE, Ark., Dec. 13.—Mrs. Winnie Ruth Judd, convicted of murder and sentenced to be hanged Feb. 17, whom the Arizona Supreme Court yesterday denied a new trial, called her husband and attorneys to her today for a conference on further action to prevent her execution.

Her only hope for immediate delay is a formal petition to the Supreme Court for a rehearing of the arguments on a new trial. Arthur C. Verge of Los Angeles, of counsel, said application for a rehearing would be filed immediately.

In addition, she may appeal to the State Board of Pardons and Parole; she may obtain a sanity hearing, but only at the request of the warden of the State prison; or she may appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Mrs. Judd spent last night in her cell in "condemned row" with her mother, Mrs. H. J. McKinnell of Darlington, Ind., who had been allowed to remain with her daughter.

Mrs. Judd, the wife of Dr. William Judd, Los Angeles physician, had received calmly the news that the Supreme Court had denied her a new trial. Both of her parents were with her when the warden announced: "I have unpleasant news for you, Mrs. Judd. We have just received word the Supreme Court has handed down its decision and has denied you a new trial."

Mrs. Judd stared at the warden for a moment, and then said: "I am no murderer. I fought for my life when she (Mrs. Le Roi) came at me with the gun."

Mrs. Judd was convicted of murdering Mrs. Agnes Anne Le Roi, a former friend with whom she resided in Phoenix, Ariz. She also was charged with the murder of Miss Hedvig Samuelson, another former companion, but was not put on trial on this charge. Both women were slain at about the same time, in October, 1931, their bodies dismembered and sent in trunks from Phoenix to Los Angeles.

Mrs. Judd has maintained throughout that she killed the women in self-defense, although she did not take the stand in her own behalf.

She had sought a new trial on 12 assignments of error, the principal of which was the refusal of the trial judge to instruct the jury in the law of self-defense.

SEISMIC ACTIVITY DECLINING IN NEW MADRID, MO., AREA

The Rev. James B. MacElwane, Tells of Observations; Traces Growth of St. Louis U. Department. Seismic activity in the center of the New Madrid earthquakes of 1811 and 1812 is decreasing, the Rev. James B. MacElwane, S. J., dean of St. Louis University Graduate School and head of the geophysics department, reported at a meeting of the Sigma Xi Club of the university last night.

Other studies by the department since 1925, he related, disclosed evidence that the earth has a sharply defined and probably solid core. The department now is investigating the nature of earthquake waves.

Prof. MacElwane traced growth of the seismological stations from the purchase of one instrument in 1909, to the present department, with 12 seismographs in St. Louis and St. Louis County and two in Little Rock, Ark., with a staff of scientists co-operating with the National Research Council, Science Service, the Jesuit Seismological Association and the Coast and Geodetic Survey.

MAN WITH DAGGER CAUGHT IN FORMER KAISER'S CASTLE

German, Apparently Unbalanced, Taken by Police at Doorn and Sent Back to Homeland.

By the Associated Press.
DOORN, THE NETHERLANDS, Dec. 13.—A well-dressed man, apparently mentally unbalanced, was caught yesterday in the former Kaiser's castle with a long dagger and a pistol on his person. He was identified today by castle guards as the man who gained access to the castle grounds last Sunday, but was ejected.

The guards said he had stayed at a hotel since Saturday under the name of Franz Hillmoldt. The man said he was German and had a message for the former Kaiser from Adolf Hitler, National Socialist leader in Germany.

The prisoner was taken by a police guard to Amsterdam and sent across the border into Germany. He was discovered crouching yesterday in the turret room of the castle, adjoining the ex-Kaiser's study. Police said he slipped into the grounds behind an automobile and succeeded in entering the vestibule of the castle last Sunday.

KILLING OF WIFE 'JUSTIFIED'

Coroner's Jury Verdict in Memphis Homicide Case.

By the Associated Press.
MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 13.—A verdict of justifiable homicide was returned yesterday by a coroner's jury in the case of a man who was quoted by police as saying he shot and killed his wife because she refused to stop going with another man.

The woman, Mrs. Edward C. Rayle, 36 years old, was killed Sunday night by her husband in the presence of Joe. Dougan. Rayle said he "begged them to quit" going together, and when they refused, he fired at Dougan. Mrs. Rayle jumped in front of Dougan. Rayle said, and received three bullets in her body.

LINDBERGH'S ADDRESS WROTE IN INTERNATIONAL 'WHO'S WHO'

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—The International "Who's Who" for 1933, published today, lists the names, deeds and honors of some 25,000 of the world's notables.

Mahatma Gandhi, described as a barrister, is accorded 10 lines for his campaigns and interments. Col. Charles A. Lindbergh gets eight lines and a wrong address: "Hopewell, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A."

George Bernard Shaw continues to list his recreation as "anything except sport." Julian Huxley says his is "bird catching," and H. L. Mencken names "music."

Paul Robeson, Negro singer and actor and former All-American football player at Rutgers, is listed, but Joseph Stalin and Leon Trotsky are not.

Col. and Mrs. Lindbergh have not occupied their new home at Hopewell, N. J. (near Princeton), since their first-born, Charles Augustus Jr., was kidnapped and murdered. Then they resided in Englewood, N. J., at the home of Mrs. Lindbergh's mother, Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow. When the second Lindbergh baby was born it became known that they had taken an apartment in New York. For a time the Colonels maintained a voting residence at 320 Union boulevard, St. Louis.

Widow of Sheriff Gets Office.
By the Associated Press.
HOUSTON, Mo., Dec. 13.—Mrs. Beale Kelly was appointed by the County Court today as Sheriff of Texas County for the remainder of the term of her husband, Sheriff Harry Kelly, who died in Springfield Friday, of blood poisoning caused by a scratch he suffered in an automobile accident a week earlier. Mrs. Kelly is the mother of two children. Her term will expire Jan. 1, when Andy P. Johnson, Democrat, will take office.

NEUN FOR MAYOR GAINS SUPPORT IN G. O. P. COMMITTEE

About Half Its Members Already Inclined to Board His Band-Wagon, One of Them Says.

While the Republican City Committee has called on a citizens' advisory committee to recommend a strong candidate for Mayor, many members of the City Committee are planning to support President Neun of the Board of Aldermen, the only candidate for the mayoralty who has announced his entry into the race.

Present indications are that the City Committee will pay little attention to the advisory committee's recommendation, unless it should favor Neun. The advisory committee, which is headed by Daniel N. Kirby, lawyer, has not been called to meet yet.

The City Committee members, who are practical politicians, fear now that Neun cannot be defeated for the nomination and that if he should be elected those who oppose him would be in political disfavor. Neun was re-elected president of the Board of Aldermen last year with the support of only two of the 56 members of the City Committee.

"Hank" Weeks Tells Gruner.
Chairman Gruner of the City Committee, in calling on Kirby's group for advice, expressed the opinion that the public wanted a Mayor chosen with as little interference as possible by present office-holders and politicians. He declared that a candidate not now connected with official life would be the best selection, particularly because of public resentment against benefit taxes arising from the street-widening program.

"Hank" Weeks, veteran Eighteenth Ward leader, said to Gruner recently: "You might as well forget about the advisory committee. It looks like Neun has got it sewed up. He's strong all over the South Side."

Gruner replied: "Well, Neun may be strong."
Neun says he has not asked the City Committee for support. He has been making contacts with civic and neighborhood groups and various other organizations, and politicians recognize his popularity. Members of the Board of Aldermen, who are powers in their respective wards, are inclined to favor Neun, because they have been in close contact with him and feel their political strength might be enhanced if he became Mayor.

One member of the City Committee said that at present half of that group appeared likely to support Neun.

Remmers Mentioned.
Oliver T. Remmers, president of the Police Board and former chairman of the Election Board, has been discussed as the Republican nominee for Mayor. Neun defeated Remmers for the nomination for president of the Aldermen in 1923.

Remmers is close to Collector Koeln politically. Koeln said today: "If Remmers runs, I'm not going to have anything to do with it. This is no time for the charge of bossism to be raised." Remmers asked if he would run, said: "I'm still in the Police Department and there is a rule in the police manual against taking an active part in politics."

He will resign next month, however, when Gov. Park takes office. Mayor Miller is eager to seek a third term. A political friend declared: "We're going to have a hard time to keep Miller out of the race. Under the circumstances, I think he had better keep out and let us support Neun."

Miller's followers attempted to defeat Neun for the presidency of the board last year. The Mayor has said he would announce about Jan. 1 whether he would run again, but some politicians declare he would get little, if any, organization support and could not be nominated.

Sheriff Strodtman, whose term expires Dec. 31, has been talked of as a Republican mayoralty candidate. He is noncommittal, but friends think he would run if urged sufficiently. Other Republicans mentioned for the nomination are: City Counselor, Alderman Kuhs, Circuit Judge Killoren and C. J. Abeln, tobacco dealer. At least 10 Democrats are under consideration for the race.

U. S. COMMISSIONER HELD ON BRIBE-TAKING CHARGE

Former Minister Accused of Responsibility for "Leaks" on Liquor Holds.

By the Associated Press.
WILLIAMSTON, N. C., Dec. 13.—Thomas E. Beaman, United States Commissioner at Greenville and former Minister, charged with taking bribes from bootleggers, was remanded to the Martin County Jail yesterday in default of $5000 bond set at a Commissioner's hearing. He is scheduled to be tried before Judge I. M. Meekins in Federal Court at Washington, N. C., next April.

At yesterday's hearing officers told of laying a trap for Beaman after, they said, "leaks" had resulted in failure of several well-planned liquor raids.

They said arrest of Beaman, who for the past three years has been active in prosecution of bootleggers and blockade in this section, followed a four-week investigation by Pitt County officers.

Months.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Representative Daniel E. Garrett of Texas died at his home here today of heart disease.

Garrett was 63 years old. He had been in poor health for two years and seriously ill for several months.

He is survived by three daughters,
Mrs. George A. Butler of Houston,

Shooting Followed Quarrel
Over Divorce Suit.

Joseph Jones, who shot and seriously wounded his wife Sunday night in her restaurant at 5368 Natural Bridge avenue, was arrested yesterday afternoon in a

Under a mattress in the flat
where Jones was arrested police found his coat and a revolver.

restaurant with him Sunday night,
he said, but had no intention of shooting his wife until they quarreled over her pending divorce suit.

HOUSE GROUP AGAINST SHIFT

Opposes Hoover's Recommendation for Transfer From War to Interior Department.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Unanimous opposition to President Hoover's recommendation for transferring rivers and harbors work from the War to the Interior department was voted today by the House Rivers and Harbors Committee.

After discussing the recommendation in a closed session, the committee instructed Chairman Mansfield to introduce a resolution to block
this portion of the President's regrouping plan.

"This is the only section of the President's message we discussed," Mansfield said. "The committee was unanimously against it and I will seek early approval of my resolution."

MILLS URGED TO RECOMMEND

FEDERAL BUILDING FUND HERE

Telegrams Sent to Him and Director of Budget by Chamber of Commerce.

Telegrams were sent today by the Chamber of Commerce to United States Secretary of the Treasury
Mills and Col. J. Clawson Rood, director of the budget, urging that they recommend a $1,200,000 deficiency appropriation for the immediate construction of a 10-story new Federal Building in St. Louis.

The appropriation for converting the proposed six-story building into one 10 stories high was not included in the special deficiency estimates sent to Congress recently, although Treasury officials announced last month it would be in the list.

INSTRUCTOR ON HUNGER STRIKE

New Yorker's Protest on "Apathy Toward Anti-Semitic Excesses."
By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Dr. Arthur Kraus, former Polish Army officer and now philosophy instructor
at City College, passed yesterday
what he said was the second day of a hunger strike "in protest against the apathy of intellectuals toward anti-semitic excesses in Polish universities."

The immediate cause of his fast,
he explained, was the abandonment
by undergraduate leaders at the college of plans for a student march to the Polish consulate Thursday.
He added, however, that his action
was the "logical and inevitable consequence of a life devoted to Jewish causes." He spent yesterday in bed preparing messages to be sent posthumously to President

Hoover, Albert Einstein, Henri Bergson, Sigmund Freud and others.

POLICE QUESTION GROUP

SOLICITING ADVERTISEMENTS

Chief Gerk Says He Never Heard of Their Publication, "The Sheriff and Police Officer."

Five men who have been soliciting business houses for advertisements in a publication they called
"The Sheriff and Police Officer of Missouri" were arrested for investigation in an office of the Title Guaranty Building today. Chief of Police Gerk, an officer of the Sheriffs' and Police Officers' Association of Missouri, said the publication was unknown to the association and had never been seen by the police.

A man apparently in charge of the office said he would issue the publication when he felt like it. He declined to show police a copy. He was one of those arrested. A book was seized, listing several hundred business establishments. After the names of some were entries of various small amounts totaling $200, marked "paid."

Detectives watching the office
from an adjoining room reported that one of the solicitors told some one on the telephone yesterday:
"You know, the new Sheriffs will take office soon. Why not place a $5 or $10 greeting card in our special Christmas number? Your greeting would be quite a feather
in your cap and the boys at headquarters would appreciate your assistance." Chief Gerk, who said complaints had been received, will ask the Circuit Attorney whether anything can be done to stop the solicitation of advertisements for the publication.

$11,550 FEES TO ATTORNEYS

IN HANDLAN WILL LITIGATION

Circuit Judge Norton Approves
Payment of $5000 to One Law Firm.

Fees totaling $11,550 were allowed by Circuit Judge Norton today to lawyers in consolidated litigation
over the estate of Alexander H.
Handlan. The litigation was instituted by certain heirs who asked that Handlan's will be interpreted and that a trust provision be declared void. The trust was upheld.

The Court by agreement allowed $5000 to the law firm of Wilfey, Williams & Nelson, representing the estate of Eugene W. Handlan, a son; $1500 to McDonald & Just, counsel for the estate of Mrs. Mollie Handlan, widow; $350 to Thomas C. Hennings Jr., representing minor heirs, and $4700 to Mrs.
Marie H. Hornsby, a daughter, to reimburse her for money paid to lawyers.

Mrs. Hornsby had asked for a total of $17,750 to compensate her for all of her expenses, including various trips occasioned on account of the litigation, but Judge Norton
only approved her counsel fees.
Claims of other attorneys for fees
in the same matter are still pending.

Handlan was president of Hand-lan-Buck Manufacturing Co., railway supplies. His estate was valued at more than $1,500,000.

SENTENCED TO 10 DAYS

ON DRUNKEN DRIVING CHARGE

Robert Berberich, 27-year-old meter reader, 5045 Tennessee avenue, was sentenced to 10 days in the workhouse and fined $100 in Police Judge Blain's court this morning on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Berberich was arrested on Sept.
29 when his machine collided with a car parked in the 4400 block on Cherokee street, injuring a woman occupant of the parked automobile.
He will appeal.

HEADS ECONOMY LEAGUE GROUP

Former Police Commissioner
Daniel Bartlett was appointed chairman of the veterans' division of the Missouri branch, National Economy League yesterday.

League administration has been divided between Vice-Chairman
Melville W. Borders Jr. at Kansas
City headquarters, and Chairman
Charles M. Polk at St. Louis headquarters, which will direct the Jefferson City, Moberly, Hannibal, Festus and Cape Girardeau divisions. Each of the 114 counties will be organized in the membership campaign next month. Herbert E.
Bryant, former Ferguson City Attorney, was appointed chairman of the St. Louis County branch.

By the Associated Press.

VATICAN CITY, Dec. 13.—An ap-

the newspaper Osservatore Ro-

The publication recalled that the United States, after the war, reminded the victorious nations that charity could not be separated from justice—a statement the paper said was similar to one made by Pope Pius.

"America conducted herself toward conquered nations in a manner not different from that of the vicar of Christ," the newspaper asserted.

"Now there are nations conquered economically. The voice of generosity cannot be silent today as it was not silent yesterday for the conquered in the war."

Editors of the newspaper are approved by the Pope before publication and are considered to reflect the pontiff's views.

Peace, disarmament and reconstruction of economic life were declared to be connected with the sacrifice Europe was asking of the United States.

Osservatore Romano cited three points: Germany's inability to pay,
the Allies' request for revision of debts and request by the United States for disarmament.

It declared its hope that disarmament would be the basis for a solution giving "common satisfaction." "It is also true that in a general crisis no one can be said to be economically the victor," the paper continued. "If no one could appeal to generosity, 'realism'
would exist for everyone."

"And America with an eminently practical spirit could not be deaf
to the counsel or reality. In fact, she already has seen in this reality
not only the opportunity for reaching revision or the eventual con-donement of debts, but also the necessity that revision and condonement be met by Europe with corresponding reductions in the enormous expenses of armaments."

The article concluded with the statement that the common objective was not only a solution of the crisis but "the resurrection of faith
among peoples and between peoples,
and, therefore, peace."

LEAVENWORTH'S EX-CHIEF OF POLICE FOUND NOT GUILTY

Henry Knipe Acquitted on Charge of Accepting Bribes to Protect Liquor Ring.

By the Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, Kan., Dec. 13.—Henry Knipe, former Chief of Police at Leavenworth, Kan., was acquitted by a Federal Court jury last night on a charge of accepting bribes for protection of a liquor ring in 1929 when he was Chief of Police. The Government's principal witness was A. S. Winetroub, who said that he acted as a go-between in delivering weekly payments of $300 each for four months to Knipe. Defense witnesses attacked the reputation of Winetroub, and J. C. Ramel, former Police Judge, testified that Knipe's orders against speakeasies and other liquor-dispensing places were: "Raid them all; they all look alike."

Are You A COLDS-SUSCEPTIBLE?

Colds-Susceptibles, According to Recent Medical Research,
Are Those Having Four or More Colds a Year

BWARE OF COLDS NOW

Colds—especially those mean "grippy" colds so prevalent at the present time—are more of a menace than most people suppose. They lower body resistance and often pave the way for serious ills. Colds-Susceptibles—those who "catch colds" easily—should be especially careful now.

If you belong to this group, here's welcome news. Vicks Plan for better Control of Colds was developed especially for America's millions of Colds-Susceptibles and their families.

With certain simple rules of health, Vicks Plan combines proper medication—at the proper time—for every type and stage of a cold. The Plan was made possible with the new aid in preventing colds—Vicks Nose & Throat Drops. It is the ideal companion to Vicks VapoRub—the modern way of treating colds. The two aid and supplement each other in reducing the burden of the world's costliest ailment—the starting point of one-half of all disabling diseases!

VICKS COLDS-CONTROL PLAN

Introduced last year, Vicks Plan has been amazingly successful in showing the way to fewer colds, less severe colds, less expense from colds. Here, briefly is the Plan:

Simple Health Rules—Get plenty of rest and sleep. Eliminate regularly. Drink lots of water. Eat light, wholesome food.

When Colds Threaten—Use Vicks Nose & Throat Drops, the new aid in preventing colds.

If a Cold Develops or strikes without warning—Use Vicks VapoRub, the nation's stand-by in treating colds.

In clinical tests among thousands last winter, Vicks Colds-Control Plan reduced the number and duration of colds by half!—cut the danger and costs of colds more than half! How you can follow Vicks Plan in your home is fully explained in each Vicks package.

SOME "COLD" FACTS

It is estimated that one out of every four persons is a Colds-Susceptible. Approximately 30 million Americans belong to this group.

Indoor workers, as a group, rate high as Colds-Susceptibles. For instance, office workers have nine times as many colds as taxi drivers and four times as many as soldiers.

Children as a class are particularly susceptible to colds. Thousands are absent from school from three days to three weeks each year because of colds.

Probably the greatest damage done by colds is that they so often lead to more serious complications.

Colds-Susceptibles—their body resistance lowered by frequent colds—are an easier prey for flu, bronchitis, pneumonia, and other disabling diseases.

TRIAL OFFER: Your druggist has Vicks VapoRub (now available in Stainless form, if you prefer). Also the new Vicks Nose Drops, and a Cough Drop actually medicated with ingredients of Vicks VapoRub. If you wish to test these new products before buying, and learn more about Vicks Plan for better Control of Colds, send 3c in stamps to Vicks Chemical Company, Pomona Street, Greensboro, North Carolina.

FAVORS PAYMENT FOR KILLING OF TWO MEXICANS IN U. S.

House Committee Approves Bill Calling for Indemnity to Youth's Families.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The House Foreign Affairs Committee today unanimously approved the McReynolds' bill to pay the Mexican Government $30,000 as an "act of grace" for the killing by Oklahoma Deputy Sheriffs of two relatives of ex-President Ortiz Rubio.

The bill was introduced by Chairman McReynolds (Dem., Tennessee), to pay $15,000 each to the Mexican Government for the families of Emilio Cortez Rubio and Manuel Gomez, students slain June 7, 1931, near Ardmore, Ok.

The youths were returning to Mexico from school in the United States and were shot by Deputy Sheriffs after a verbal altercation over being stopped on the highway.

EX-CHAIRMAN HUSTON TELLS HOW G. O. P. WILL BE REBUILT

He Predicts Reorganization Without "Volcanoes" or "Spectacular Changes."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Claudio H. Huston, one-time chairman of the Republican National Committee, visited Washington yesterday and predicted that the G. O. P. would reorganize for the next election without "volcanoes" or "spectacular changes."

He issued a formal statement, which said:

"The Hoover group has naturally dominated the party to a large extent for the last four years. It will just as naturally begin to surrender much of its power, official and otherwise, to other leaders and influences."

"The 'Old Guard' will find itself gradually assuming a greater influence and responsibility, and this can come none too soon."

"The 'Progressives' who have felt quite on the outside, will probably ask and get much more party recognition than they have enjoyed heretofore, and they are entitled to it."

"No volcanoes will erupt, no earthquakes will be felt, no spectacular changes will ensue, but gradually and logically, and I hope quietly, the steps will be taken to regain for the party and the people their former leadership."

FORMER PRIVATE WATCHMAN GETS 20 YEARS FOR KILLING

W. T. Teasley Sentenced, on Plea of Guilty, for Shooting Last July 2.

Witnesses told police that Teasley, who had been drinking, fired without provocation. Teasley said Richmond had made a threatening remark. Teasley is 26 years old and has been living at 2923 Howard street.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE SEEKS NEW DRY POLLS IN STATES

Wants to Regain Status of Laws Knocked Out at Recent Elections.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—A decision to seek a new vote in states where prohibition laws were repealed in the recent elections was made today by the National Board of Trustees of the Anti-Saloon League. The vote will be sought whenever it is legally possible to regain the status of any and all dry laws hit by referendums.

The determination to have states vote again where they have upset prohibition law is a return to dry strategy of 15 years ago, when votes on prohibition were demanded by the drys as frequently as was legally possible.

ALLOTMENT PLAN FOR FARM GROUP IN HOUSE BILL

Jones Measure as Tentatively Drawn Would Repeal Stabilization Provisions of Farm Board Act.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—A tentative draft of a domestic allotment farm relief plan covering wheat, cotton, tobacco and hogs and repealing the stabilization provisions of the Farm Board Act, was made public today as the basis of farm-relief hearings by the House Agriculture Committee.

Chairman Jones distributed the draft of the emergency bill he had prepared to members of the committee. It meets tomorrow to proceed with consideration. "This is simply a tentative bill to be used wholly as the basis of the committee's work," Jones explained.

The first section of the measure directs that within 30 days of enactment the Secretary of Agriculture shall estimate and proclaim the probable domestic consumption of the 1933 production of wheat, cotton, tobacco and hogs.

Adjustment Certificates. Each producer then would be entitled to an adjustment certificate "covering the domestic consumption percentage of each lot of the commodity which is marketed by or for him during the year." The face amount of the adjustment certificates were to be fixed at 42 cents a bushel for wheat, 5 cents a pound for cotton, 4 cents a pound for tobacco and 2 cents a pound for hogs, less administrative expenses.

Ignoring suggestions that it might meet a presidential veto, farm leaders today rallied behind the voluntary allotment plan, before the House Committee to tell Chairman Jones they would support the plan provided additional consumer costs were not passed on to by-products of the commodity served.

Disaffection threatening unified support of the Jones bill later flared in the ranks of national farm organization leaders over an attempt to make the domestic "voluntary" allotment plan compulsory. John A. Simpson, president of the Farmers' Union, cast a negative vote for his organization when a conference of the organization leaders put the question of blanket approval of amendments which have developed since Chairman Jones presented his bill to the House Committee on Agriculture. President-elect Roosevelt who has shown a leaning to the allotment principles, was present at the conference of 15 national farm and commodity organizations by Henry Morgenthau Jr., frequently advanced as a possible choice for Secretary of Agriculture in the new administration.

With the apparent agreement on this farm-aid plan, the Agriculture Committee made plans to insert any changes necessary in the Jones bill which was outlined to the conference last night, and prepare it for speedy House passage. It would be effective for only two years, leaving a more comprehensive program until Gov. Roosevelt has taken office.

At the conference it was pointed out that to pay farmers a certificate approximating the tariff in addition to the market price on that portion of their crops allotted for domestic consumption the Government would have to collect an excise tax of the same amount from processors. They, in turn, would pass it on to the consumer.

It was the contention of farm leaders that the increased cost of living should be reflected in higher prices of bread, cotton clothing, pork and tobacco products. If spread out over all categories the benefit to wheat and cotton farmers would be diminished by increased costs of shorts, middlings and cotton bagging, of which the farmer is the principal consumer.

WIDOW'S RESIDENCE BURNS

Fire at the home of Mrs. Mary Cecconi, on Sumner boulevard, at Collinsville, early today, destroyed the house. The building was unoccupied. Mrs. Cecconi, a widow and her two children were at the home of relatives at Christopher, Ill.

Attention was first attracted to the fire by an explosion, first thought to have been caused by a bomb. Further investigation, however, led to the conclusion that the detonation was due to gas formed after the fire started in the tightly closed brick residence.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—The dog "Red," half shepherd and half Irish setter, has inherited $20,000. The will of his mistress, Alice Hunter, who died Sept. 23, was filed for probate yesterday. It establishes a $20,000 trust fund for the dog's "care and board during his lifetime."

After Red's death, the fund is to be divided equally among Mrs. Irene Castle McLaughlin's dog shelter, the Anti-Cruelty Society and the Home for Destitute and Crippled children.

FORMER FASCIST SECRETARY DROPPED FROM GRAND COUNCIL

August Turati Also May Be Forced
By Mussolini to Give Up
Other Honors.

By the Associated Press. ROME, Dec. 13.—By a decree of Premier Mussolini, Augusto Turati, former secretary of the Fascist party, has been dropped from the grand council membership. He remains, however, a deputy of the party and also a Lieutenant-General in the militia, but it was considered possible he would also have to give up these honors.

His recent suspension from the Fascist party was attributed publicly to letters which officials said he wrote. These, the leaders maintained, were of a scandalous nature.

Turati is scholarly, brilliant, handsome and athletic. For five years he was a strong aid to Mussolini, but on Turati's resignation from the secretaryship there were rumors the Premier was dissatisfied with him. Later, however, the Premier made Turati editor of a Turin newspaper, but this post Turati resigned and went to a sanatorium.

A coroner's verdict of accident was returned. He is survived by a widow and a son 6 years old.

FIGHT IN BOTH HOUSES ON HOOVER REGROUPING

Democrats Think Changes Should Be Left to the New President.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—On the theory that whatever changes are made should be left to the new President, Democrats in the Senate and House joined today in what seemed like a race to see which branch would approve first a resolution blocking President Hoover's plan for regrouping Government bureaus.

The Senate had a slight edge, for there Senator King (Dem.), Utah, already had introduced such a resolution, but the House was not far behind, with one committee even going as far as to try to anticipate some of the changes which President Hoover has promised with reference to the army and navy.

Chairman Vinson called the House Naval Committee to meet today to discover what activities of the army and navy overlap and to draw legislation to curtail the duplication, if there is any.

Another Democratic chairman, Representative Cochran of Missouri, who heads the Expenditures Committee, made arrangements for the appearance before his group tomorrow of J. Clawson Roop, the budget director, who will be asked to estimate possible savings under the Hoover plan.

Speaker Garner said Congress either should let everything the President suggested become effective—as it would in 60 days in the absence of legislation—or set aside everything he proposed.

BANKERS TO CONSIDER PLANS FOR NEW GERMAN AGREEMENT

International Meeting Called for Jan. 30 on Revision of "Standstill" Debt Contract.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—A new meeting of international bankers will be held in Berlin next Jan. 30 to discuss proposals for revising the present German "standstill" agreement which will expire on Feb. 28.

"In accordance with the German credit agreement of 1923, a meeting will be held in January for the revision of the present agreement which expires at the end of February, 1933," said A. H. Wiggin, chairman of the governing board of the Chase National Bank, who is also chairman of the German credit committee.

3 Men in Motor Luggage Missing.

By the Associated Press.
WINDSOR, Ont., Dec. 13.—Three men who left Amherstburg last Friday for Monroe, Mich., in a 75-foot motor lugger, have not been heard from since, and their relatives are seeking information concerning their whereabouts. Alanzo Drouillard, George Cook and Frank Laper, all of Amherstburg, were supposed to leave Monroe Saturday.

COLDS GO THROUGH 3 STAGES!

And They are Far Easier Stopped in the First than in the Second or Third!

A cold ordinarily passes through three stages—the Dry Stage, the first 24 hours; the Watery Secretion Stage, from 1 to 3 days; and the Mucous Secretion Stage. Relief is twice as easy in the first stage.

For prompt relief take a couple of Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine immediately upon catching cold. This will usually expel the cold overnight and thus prevent the spread of the infection within your system.

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine is effective because it does the four things necessary. It opens the bowels. Kills the cold germs and fever in the system. Relieves the headache and grippy feeling. Tones the entire system and fortifies against further attack.

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine is absolutely safe to take. Contains no narcotics and produces no bad after effects. It is regarded the world over as the standard cold tablet. Comes in handy, pocket size box, cellophane wrapped. For sale in every drug store in America. Make it your first-aid in all cases of colds and grippa. Accept no substitutes.

TOKIO DISPLEASED BY AGREEMENT

GENEVA, Dec. 13.—The re-establishment of normal diplomatic relations between China and Russia, announced here yesterday, was hailed in international quarters as an event having a significant bearing on efforts to settle the Chinese-Japanese conflict.

In a statement accompanying an announcement of the reconciliation,
Maxim Litvinoff, Russian Foreign Commissioner, expressed sympathy for the Chinese people and added that it was only when all states maintained relations with one another that "we shall be able to speak resolutely of international co-operation
for the cause of peace."

Yosuke Matsukata, special Japanese counsel at the League Assembly to consider the Chinese-Japanese controversy in Manchuria, congratulated Litvinoff today on the resumption of diplomatic relations between the Soviet Union and China.

Litvinoff announced Russia's stand in a letter to Dr. W. W. Yen, China's spokesman before the League of Nations.

American-Soviet Relations.
This reconciliation and more particularly Litvinoff's comments bring sharply into prominence the question of American-Soviet relations, which authorities in Geneva believe have recently tended toward a "normal status."

The return of the two great Asian Powers to friendly association is generally regarded here as a great diplomatic victory for China and one which will strengthen its position in the face of the Japanese policy in Manchuria.

Nevertheless, the Russian Commissioner, while emphasizing his Government's friendly feeling toward China, said the improvement in the relations of one country did not mean the straining of relations toward another. This statement was interpreted as meaning that Russia
did not aim at a change in relations between the Soviet Government and Japan.

The cordial tone in which Litvin-off spoke of international peace efforts and of peace pacts and of "universally recognized and authoritative international organizations" inspired the belief among League authorities that the Soviet Government now regarded ideals of the League of Nations more warmly.

First Move for Amity.
Dr. Yen joined the Russian in issuing the announcement by an exchange of letters. The Chinese ambassador told inquirers that, on his arrival at the Disarmament Conference, he immediately recognized the necessity for reconciliation with
"our great neighbor."

Dr. Yen declared he found Litvinoff of the same mind, and the two immediately began negotiations which resulted in the resumption of friendly relations.

It was learned from another source, thought to be reliable, that the Russian first proposed a non-aggression treaty, but Yen is understood to have replied, "Let's first re-establish normal relations."

In his letter Litvinoff wrote:
"In pursuance of our recent conversations, I have the honor to inform you that, being desirous of promoting peace and friendly relations between our countries, my Government has decided to regard normal and diplomatic consular relations with the Government of the Chinese republic as re-established from this date."

The peoples of the Soviet Union
have felt and feel the greatest sympathy toward Chinese people and toward their efforts to maintain independence and sovereignty and achieve equality of statehood."

Says Soviet Is Unfettered.
In a statement to newspaper men
the Russian Commissioner said the policy of the Soviet Government required the maintenance of normal relations with all nations and
"does not consider the capture or refusal of relations to be a suitable means of regulating international relations."

Litvinoff said the Soviet Union had its hands untied by any secret political combinations or agreements.
Only a policy of friendliness generally assists in strengthening general peace, he said, and added that the start of the present Chinese-Japanese conflict was in no small measure due to the fact that not all Pacific Powers have been maintaining friendly relations.

HEAVY CASUALTIES REPORTED IN BOLIVIA-PARAGUAY WAR

Cattlemen From Gran Chaco Region Place Dead and Wounded
at 30,000.

By the Associated Press.
BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 13.— American cattlemen arriving here
from the Gran Chaco region, scene of fighting between Bolivia and Paraguay, today said that casualties on both sides have been apparently large. They declared that unofficial estimates put the Paraguayan dead and wounded as high as 12,000 and those of the Bolivians
at 18,000.

Since July, it has been estimated,
also unofficially, the Paraguayan forces have been increased until they now number 30,000 to 40,000.
It was semi-officially announced
several months ago that there were 20,000 Paraguayan soldiers in the field.

The English mission at Makthiwaya, like most available buildings in Paraguay, has become a hospital filled with wounded soldiers. Paraguay has requisitioned most of the available cattle, giving vouchers not immediately redeemable, but offering a price slightly higher than market quotations.

Increasing rains, meanwhile, have not lessened the fighting, but are transforming the Chaco into a vast bog, which, when the rainy season reaches its peak in January and February, is certain to halt all military transportation except that by train. The cattlemen said they had been "near enough to Aguaria
to hear the fighting."

SAYS BRITISH MARKET IS LOST IF U. S. COLLECTS ON DEBTS

Sir Norman Angell Thinks Declaration of Pound Will Automatically Eliminate Buying from America.

By the Associated Press.
MONTREAL, Dec. 13.—Great Britain will not put a specific embargo against United States
goods if war debts payments continuation of the pound will automatically eliminate buying from America,
Sir Norman Angell, author and economist, said today, as the pound will depreciate still further and it will not be possible to buy American goods in the United Kingdom on account of their high price.
Sir Norman expressed concern at the possibility that Britain might default on her payments, after making that due Dec. 15.

"It would not be nice to think that John Bull defaulted," he said,
"but American opposition is bitter,
in places, on the subject of debt cancellation, and I am afraid that if the American Congress takes a stiff stand on this question after
Dec. 15, there will be a great accession to the default sentiment in England."

"We should not blame the American politicians too much," Sir Norman declares. "We Europeans are not in a position to preach to them.
It took us 10 years to face the facts about reparations."

UNEMPLOYMENT WORSE THAN EVER BEFORE, GREEN ASSERTS

Seasonal Gain, He Says, Finds Workers With Resources Exhausted and Vitality Lowered.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, said yesterday that unemployment was increasing again, on the basis of reports from affiliated unions.
He said this was normal and that the increase was less than usual for the time of year. He warned, however, that "unemployment is less serious than ever before since the war because of lack of funds to continue a journey to Europe. The General was reported planning to present his case against Japan to
the League and Japan refused his agitation. This was demanded
by the Russian Government."

Move to Include U. S. and Russia
in the Arbitration.
By the Associated Press.
GENEVA, Dec. 13.—The opinion that differences between China and Japan growing out of the Manchurian warfare could be solved
by a conciliatory process involving the United States and Russia was entertained last night by representatives here of world Powers, as a subcommittee of five of the League of Nations Assembly began working on a resolution to be re-submitted to a committee of 19 of the League, which seeks to iron out difficulties in the Chinese-Japanese

situation.

Smaller Powers represented in the committee of 19 hitherto had been inclined to favor calling Japan to account for its part in the Manchurian fighting.

At any rate, representatives of these smaller nations had declared themselves in favor of the non-recognition of Manchukuo before proceeding to possible solutions of the problem.

The composition of the subcommittee reassured partisans of no
open or implied castigation of Japan's conciliatory settlement on the condition that there would be no
unlawful move irretrievably alienating Japan and making ultimate settlement impossible. The smaller Powers were thought to be convinced of the necessity for keeping Japan in the League by all possible means.

It was also thought that with the possibility of participation of the United States and the Soviet Government in the deliberations, and with the enlargement of the scope of the committee of 19 and the work of the League Assembly, the smaller nations would be willing to subscribe to a milder formula than was envisaged last week.

Meeting in secret, the committee of 19 began discussions of what basis should be adopted for the invitation to the United States and Russia to participate in the effort to solve the Chinese-Japanese tangle.

TO STUDY CLASH OF CULTURES

Head of Rosenwald Fund Going to Dutch East Indies.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—Edwin R.
Embre, president of the Julius Rosenwald fund, left today for the Dutch East Indies to study causes of clashes between primitive cultures and Western industrial civilization.

Assisting him in the survey,
which is to be made at the invitation of the Dutch Government, will be W. Bryant Mumford of the Carnegie Corporation, Embre said.
Embre is expected to be gone until next April and during his absence
the Rosenwald fund, created by the will of Julius Rosenwald, will be directed by Acting President Franklin C. McLean, who has resigned from the University of Chicago medical faculty.

Only a policy of friendliness generally assists in strengthening gen-

the start of the present Chinese-Japanese conflict was in no small
measure due to the fact that not
all Pacific Powers have been maintaining friendly relations.

JAPAN TURNS DOWN BRITISH ADVICE IN MANCHURIAN ROW

Rejects Informal Proposal That Dispute Be Submitted to International Conciliation Board.

By the Associated Press.
TOKIO, Dec. 13.—Disregarding friendly advice of its old ally Great Britain, Japan instructed its delegation at Geneva today to reject the proposal that an international conciliation commission be created to attempt a settlement of the Chinese-Japanese controversy over Manchuria.

Financial quarters considered the British manner of approach in making this proposal to Japan (Jesus the League had taken definite action) as a diplomatic reverse for Japan and there were sharp declines in the stock market.

Resumption of diplomatic relations between China and Russia,
announced yesterday at Geneva,
also contributed to the market decline. A Government spokesman said this action by what he described as the nations "most disturbance to the peace of the world"
was "indirectly threatening" Japan.

Great Britain Acts Alone.

It was learned Great Britain had acted alone in proposing that Japan accept the commission conciliation scheme and that other Powers were not associated with its suggestion.

Great Britain pointed out that, if Japan refused conciliation efforts under paragraph 3 of Article 15 of the League Covenant, it probably would be unavoidable that the League would proceed with application of paragraph 4. (Paragraph 3 provides that the League Council endeavor to effect a settlement of disputes. Paragraph 4 provides that, if this fails, the Council by majority vote shall publish a report of the facts and recommendations "in regard thereto.") Great Britain hoped such action would be unnecessary.

Commenting on the assumption of Great Britain's action, a Government spokesman said the possibility of completion of a Russian-Japanese non-aggression pact now was greatly diminished.

He challenged the statement of Maxim Litvinoff, Russian Foreign
Commissioner, that lack of diplomatic relations between "some nations"
bordering on the Pacific was a result of the present troubles in Manchuria.

"Indirect Threat to Japan."
"Indirectly meaning the United States and Russia could have checked Japan's course in the continent of Asia, M. Litvinoff, it appears, is angling for American recognition and simultaneously indirectly threatening Japan," the spokesman said.

"If this is Russia's frame of mind, thinking of possible alignments of power against Japan,
what is the use of a non-aggression pact?"

Meanwhile Japanese officials considered the information that Gen Su Ping-wen, defeated Chinese Manchurian leader, was being detained at Tomsk, Siberia, was an indirect compliance with Russia with Japanese demands.

The information from Moscow
was that he was detained about 2000 miles west of the point where he fled across the Manchurian border because of lack of funds to continue a journey to Europe. The General was reported planning to
present his case against Japan to
the League and Japan refused his
agitation. This was demanded
by the Russian Government."

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The State Department agreed today to
a reservation on the St. Lawrence
waterway treaty, if necessary, to prevent granting a permanent right
to the Aluminum Co. of America
for diversion of water for power.

Assistant Secretary James G.
Rogers told the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee considering
the treaty he had no objections to
a reservation demanded by Frank
P. Walsh, chairman of the New York Power Authority, to prevent
the Aluminum company from obtaining a permanent grant of the right to divert water for its power
project at Massena.

Rogers contended, however, that there was nothing in the treaty
which affected the Aluminum company's right to the water, as testified earlier in the day by Walsh.

The Assistant Secretary agreed
with Walsh that the treaty should not affirm the company's right to
the water.

Walsh testified that the treaty
would perpetuate a "bald gratuity"
for the Aluminum Co. of America
by the expenditure of $1,218,000 for
the company's power project at Massena.

Walsh was the final witness in
the hearings on the treaty signed
with Canada last summer for carrying out the proposal at an estimated joint cost of $543,000,000.

With friends as well as foes of
the treaty looking to President-elect Roosevelt as the holder of the
pact's final destiny, Walsh's views
were sought with more than ordinary interest, because of his close association with the President-
elect in connection with the power
phase of the project.

Walsh said testimony by Brigadier-General George B. Snodgrass,
assistant chief of army engineers,
confirmed the view that the treaty
would provide diversion of water
by the aluminum company.

"This testimony," he said, "makes
it clear that the works provided
for in the engineering plans, which
are made as integral parts of the
St. Lawrence treaty, contemplate
the expenditure of $1,218,000 for
the purpose of giving the aluminum
company permanent diversion of 25,000 cubic feet a second, if an equitable arrangement cannot be made between the Aluminum Company of America and the power
authority of the State of New York
or others who are to develop the power."

Walsh testified that the diversion
for the aluminum company would reduce the power to be developed by the public project by more than 1,000,000,000 kilowatt hours per year. He estimated this would amount to nearly $100,000,000 over a 40-year period.

"This loss would be imposed for the benefit of the aluminum company at the expense of the public project and of the consumers of electricity," he contended, and said
the rights granted the company are a "bald gratuity" because it is not required to pay rental or other compensation to the state to compensate for the use of the diverted

RECIPROCITY TARIFFS INDORSED BY ITALY

Grand Council of Fascism, However, Will Insist on
'Adequate' Protection.

By the Associated Press.
ROME, Dec. 13.—The Grand Council of Fascism, presided over by Premier Mussolini, today framed a tariff and international trade policy for Italy based largely on reciprocity subordinated to the interests of the country.

The Council resolved that Italy
should do all in its power to stimulate trade with other countries,
contracting wherever possible reciprocity agreements, without taking a definite stand at present in favor of any existing tariff policies for the world.

Similarly, the Council recommended close study of the formation of international cartels with a view of eventually adopting measures to prevent them from adversely affecting Italian industry.

The resolution carried a safeguard clause that, regardless of what steps were taken, tariffs must be "adequate" to protect industry. It concluded with a declaration that there will be no
"forced conversion" of the public debt.

AGREES TO LIMIT ALUMINUM CO. SEAWAY RIGHTS

State Department Ready to Accept Reservation to St.
Lawrence Waterway Treaty.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The State Department agreed today to
a reservation on the St. Lawrence
waterway treaty, if necessary, to prevent granting a permanent right
to the Aluminum Co. of America
for diversion of water for power.

Assistant Secretary James G.
Rogers told the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee considering
the treaty he had no objections to
a reservation demanded by Frank
P. Walsh, chairman of the New York Power Authority, to prevent
the Aluminum company from obtaining a permanent grant of the
right to divert water for its power
project at Massena.

Rogers contended, however, that
there was nothing in the treaty
which affected the Aluminum company's right to the water, as testified earlier in the day by Walsh.

The Assistant Secretary agreed
with Walsh that the treaty should
not affirm the company's right to
the water.

Walsh testified that the treaty
would perpetuate a "bald gratuity"
for the Aluminum Co. of America
by the expenditure of $1,218,000 for
the company's power project at Massena.

Walsh was the final witness in
the hearings on the treaty signed
with Canada last summer for carrying out the proposal at an estimated joint cost of $543,000,000.

With friends as well as foes of
the treaty looking to President-elect
Roosevelt as the holder of the
pact's final destiny, Walsh's views
were sought with more than ordinary interest, because of his close
association with the President-
elect in connection with the power
phase of the project.

Walsh said testimony by Brigadier-General George B. Snodgrass,
assistant chief of army engineers,
confirmed the view that the treaty
would provide diversion of water
by the aluminum company.

"This testimony," he said, "makes
it clear that the works provided
for in the engineering plans, which
are made as integral parts of the
St. Lawrence treaty, contemplate
the expenditure of $1,218,000 for
the purpose of giving the aluminum
company permanent diversion of 25,000 cubic feet a second, if an
equitable arrangement cannot be
made between the Aluminum Company of America and the power
authority of the State of New York
or others who are to develop the
power."

"The committee will recognize the disadvantage at which the State will be placed in any negotiation with the aluminum company, if the treaty provides the corporation
with an alternative, making it entirely independent of an agreement with the State."

TERMS OF R. F. C. FINANCING OF WHEAT SALE TO CHINA

Northwest Marketing Agency Must Give Its Notes as Additional Collateral.

By the Associated Press.
SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 13.—Lirectors of North Pacific Grain Growers, Inc., were informed yesterday the Reconstruction Finance Corporation would finance a $6,000-000 bushel wheat sale to China. If the Northwest marketing agency would give its notes as additional collateral to Chinese obligations.
Henry W. Collins of Portland, Western vice-president of the Farmers' National Grain Corporation, who returned from China yesterday, advised the directors of the terms at a meeting here. The R. F. C. would charge 5 per cent interest on the loan which would total $3,000,000 and extend for three years, Collins said.

Other stipulations include: One-third of the wheat must be shipped in the form of flour, and American ships are to be given preference;
all wheat and flour included in the sale must be used in China and not be resold to any other country; the sale must be consummated by June 30, 1933; Farmers' National will deliver the wheat to ships at Pacific Northwest ports and handle operating details of the sale.

power to revoke whatever rights
have been granted to the aluminum company.

May Become Vested Right.
"We are now faced by the possibility," he continued, "that the inclusion as an integral part of the treaty of this provision for permanent diversion may make the aluminum company independent of control by the State, or may lead to extensive litigation before the State is enabled to assert its full right to terminate the diversion."

"The trustees of the power authority, therefore, point out to your committee the menacing possibility that this conditional grant by the State of New York to the aluminum company will later be held
a vested right, imbedded in a treaty which the courts may decide is the supreme law of the land."

"Inasmuch as this is a purely domestic question, of no possible concern to Canada, whatever action may be necessary to preserve
the rights of the State of New York
and to eliminate this obvious flaw
in the treaty can be taken by the United States without prejudice to the treaty as a whole and without impeding in any way the carrying out of the development in which the nation and the State are interested."

Indorses Construction.
Walsh indorsed construction of the St. Lawrence seaway and said it would expedite the project. If Congress would give prompt consideration to allocating the power and fixing the costs to be divided by the Federal Government and New York State.

He proposed that the United States agree to make available to New York for power development
all of the water in the international rapids section over and above the quantity required for navigation. He summarized the position of the trustees of the power authority by saying that the power resources of the St. Lawrence should be developed without delay by a public agency for the benefit of the people under conditions that will permit the sale of electricity at the lowest possible rates.

ISLAND SHRINE TO 'T. R.' FORMALLY ACCEPTED BY U. S.

LIKENS MANCHURIA TO BALKANS IN 1914

Chinese Declares Japan's Acts
Threaten to Revive Militarism in World.

Failure to check Japanese aggression in Manchuria will result in immediate revival of militarism in the world over, Dr. No-Yong Park, Manchurian Chinese, and member of the University of Minnesota faculty, told the Junior League yesterday.

It might be accomplished without force or even no dangerous precedent as the economic boycott advocated in some quarters last year, Dr. Park said in conversation following his lecture at the clubroom, 4914 Maryland avenue. A united front of the Powers would accomplish it, he remarked, "but that is precisely what they have failed to do."

He said also that he did not believe Japan could hold Manchuria many years. While Russia was in no position to borrow trouble outside its borders just now, he said, natural avenue of expansion, Eastern Asia, would bring it face to face with Japan.

"So you see," he commented, "Manchuria is a dangerous spot just as the Balkans were in Europe in 1914." He said the only apparent means to prevent its becoming an Asiatic "Balkans" was to carry out the Lytton recommendations to the League of Nations.

Speaking, he said, as a life student of international relations and an advocate of world peace, he remarked that the Manchurian affair would be insignificant if it were not a "test case" which might determine the future of disarmament and all the agencies and instruments to preserve peace.

Outstanding in many fundamental causes of conflict, he pointed out, were the fact that China has utterly failed to this day to set up a strong central government and maintain order, and, "most important," Japanese aggression. At another point he commented, "I don't think Manchuria, if only they'd do a better job of it."

Japan's excuse of having to find room for its growing population was insincere, declared Dr. Park. The Japanese people since 1895 had told their own people they wanted more children—so that, he added, conquest would become "what we call 'manpower'." Millions in Japan, he contended, were against imperialism and wanted to protect only their legitimate interests in Manchuria, but the leaders were "gingivists" who were in complete control of the staff of the World War was made.

An illustration at home, as to Japan's protection of "self-defense" of a source of food supply, he pointed out that Japan produced all but 5 to 10 per cent of its own food. Seizing Manchuria on pretense of protecting "manpower" he pointed out that Japan had produced 10 per cent of its food-stuffs, he commented, would be comparable to seizure of the United States by England, with the slight of Midwestern farmers for sugar.

Relating that the explosion at Mukden—his birthplace—was followed by the seizure of the 400,000 square miles, blew up just 31 inches of Japanese railway, he asserted, "I cannot prove or disprove that the Japanese blew up the tracks as the Chinese say, but obviously it had all been planned long before the explosion."

"Thousands of Japanese soldiers had been moving into Manchuria from Korea, Japanese officials of the military clique conferred a week before the explosion. Two days before it occurred, the Japanese commander in chief appeared on the scene. That explosion came on a Sunday, and within 48 hours Japan was in complete control of this important city in Manchuria."

"If Japan takes Manchuria in the same way, Japan will be a stronger Power and greater enemy to peace than it is today. The program is, Manchuria first, then to use Manchuria to take China, and then, with China's resources and man-power, to conquer the whole world."

"That is the dream of the Japanese militarists. How far Japan can go with these dreams today time will tell. They seem childish to us. But the leaders of Japan live in that sort of dream, and that is something for us to think about."

The young woman of the Freshman class at Washington University with the most nearly perfect posture is Miss Zetta Berger, 18-year-old daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Frank A. Berger, 7606 Teasdale avenue, University City. Prof. Berger is instructor of mechanical engineering at the university.

JUNIOR LEAGUE REVEALS AT HOBBY TOWN HOUSE

Indoor 'Coney Island' Opens
With Many Diversions; Melodrama Offered.

Tired of the formalities of "coming-out" parties and bridge luncheons, debutantes and their older sisters of the Junior League turned to the more basic forms of amusement last night when the Junior League formally took possession of Hobby Town Hall, an indoor Coney Island at 6433 Maple avenue.

The debutantes with their escorts "took in" everything. They hurried to the "baseball" field and had their fun in batting suits, they had their fortunes told or their pictures drawn, they participated in games of chance, spent several dollars for charity and got a kippie doll as a reward.

At least 300 of "St. Louis' 400" attended the "old-fashioned melodrama," "The Ragged Princess," performed by "professional talent." After the first act, peanuts were sold. While lacking the telling qualities of ripe tomatoes, they are nevertheless missiles. In a steady downpour of peanuts, the drama then continued.

The old substantial melodrama characters were there. The old Negro mammy, who had stolen everything from babies to wills; the Southern Colonel, the villain with the riding crop; the hero with the curly hair, and the ragged Princess, so ragged in fact, her first entrance was made in a barrel.

PAINTING BY BELGIAN QUEEN ON EXHIBIT

Portrait of Daughter, Marie-Jose, Center of Benefit Display in Antwerp

By the Associated Press.

ANTWERP, Dec. 13.—A painting by the Queen of the Belgians is the center of interest in an exhibition at the Ulanin Hall. It is a portrait of her daughter, Princess Marie-Jose, now wife of the heir to the Italian throne.

The exhibition, made up of works of amateur artists, was organized for benefit of Antwerp section of the National Belgian League against tuberculosis. It is proving to be a great success, the Queen's contribution drawing large crowds. Experts say the Queen's work is one of the best on view.

The Queen of the Belgians is talented both in art and music. She has played the violin since childhood and the late Eugene Ysaie was one of her teachers. Under his direction she frequently organized musical receptions at the royal castle of Laeken. In the early years of her marriage, she played the violin at the throne hall's palace, which has since become the United States Ambassador's residence.

Eugene Ysaie's second wife (formerly Miss Jeanette D'Inch of Brooklyn, now touring the United States), was a frequent guest at the Laeken Castle musical receptions and often assisted the Queen.

The Queen never misses one of the great concerts that are staged in Brussels and the Belgian violinists and musicians are her regular guests.

Few people, however, were aware that she was also a painter. But, relatives and close friends know that she is fond of painting and that she regrets not having more time to devote to art.

OSCAR R. PARKS REINSTATED AS CITY AIRPORT MANAGER

Clears Himself at Hearing; Charges Against Him Not Made Public.

Oscar R. Parks was reinstated yesterday as manager of Lambert-St. Louis Field, the municipal airport, following a 10-day suspension pending investigation of charges. He cleared himself at a hearing before Director of Public Welfare Salisbury, Associate Comptroller Cunningham and Park Commissioner Page. Salisbury announced the field manager had been reinstated, but declined to make public the charges "because to do so would be unfair to Parks, since they were not substantiated."

"Parks was guilty only of minor indiscretions, nothing serious enough to cause his dismissal," Salisbury explained. "He has a good record, is a sincere worker, and we believe he is the man to manage the airport," Salisbury continued.

The charges were brought by several individuals at the airport.

About the same time, George Roubesh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Holt Roubesh, 6218 Washington boulevard, will be home from Harvard Law School. His sister, Miss Jane Roubesh, will return from the Ward, Belmont College, Nashville, Tenn.

Arrangements have been made for a holiday dance to be given by the St. Louis Club of the University of Notre Dame Tuesday night, Dec. 27, at the Westborough Country Club. Peter Viviano is in charge of the general arrangements.

Invitations have been received for the ice carnival to be given at the Bridespur Hunt Club, Dec. 30, in honor of Miss Marie Eleanor Busch, debutante daughter of Mrs. Florence Parker Busch, Grand View Farm. The hosts and hostesses will be Miss Busch's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Marion L. J. Lambert, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Sharp Ezell.

At the party Friday, Miss Watson was a gown of black velvet. PIRATES GREATLY STRENGTHENED BY TRIANGULAR TRADE

CARDINALS SAID TO BE DICKERING WITH THE REDS FOR DUROCHER

By J. Roy Stockton.

Of the Post-Dispatch Sport Staff.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—George Gibson's Pirates, who made a last fight for the 1932 pennant, strengthened their chances for 1933, in the opinion of baseball men, by a three-cornered trade which was announced last night, on the eve of the opening of the major league meetings.

Pittsburgh, by the terms of the deal, obtained the services of Freddie Lindstrom, and next year will have one of the best outfield combinations in baseball, with Paul Waner in right, Lloyd Waner in center and Lindstrom in left field.

The Pirates sent Outfielder Dugas and Pitcher Glenn Spencer to the Giants, along with a bundle of cash, and the Giants then swapped Dugas, Outfielder Ellis and some or all of the cash to the Phillies for Outfielder George Davis.

Inasmuch as a weakness in left field was considered one of the few flaws in the Pittsburgh machine last year, the Pirates, in the opinion of baseball men attending the meeting here, have taken a long stride toward preparing for the next pennant race.

Durocher Sought by Cards.

Rumors of other impending trades filled the air as the deal was announced, and both St. Louis clubs were reported interested in transactions under consideration. The Cardinals were said to be trying to land Leo Durocher from the Reds.

Phil Ball of the Browns and Clark Griffith of the Senators were in conference this afternoon and a trade between the St. Louis and Washington clubs was expected to be announced soon. Neither party to the conference would give any information, but it was reported that Griffith desired to restore Goose Goslin to the Senators roster and that three or four men on each team would be involved.

Bill Killefer, manager of the Browns, admitted that he had conferred with Joe Cronin, the general manager of the Senators, but declined to name men who were likely to be involved in any deal. Killefer denied that the Browns were likely to be any transaction between the Browns and Philadelphia Athletics. The explanation was that Mack was eager to make trades but that he was not interested in Goslin or any other high-salaried men, his desire being to cut down his overhead.

Branch Rickey III.

With Branch Rickey confined to his hotel room with a severe attack of flu, Sam Breadon was playing a lone hand in efforts to arrange trades to strengthen the Cardinals. Breadon, it was reported, was ready to talk business with clubs desiring the services of Jim Bottomley. Brooklyn officials said they had discussed Bottomley with the Cardinal President but that Breadon wanted too much money.

The American League Board of Directors held a meeting this morning but it was announced that nothing of importance had been done—for publication. There was to be a league meeting of the A. L. magnates this afternoon.

The National League club owners went into executive session this morning, to take up the propositions outlined by the steering committee at yesterday's sessions.

Gabby Street Absent.

Virtually all of the major league managers are here. Gabby Street is only absent because the National League pilots and Lew Fonseca of the White Sox, detained by illness in his family, the only missing American League.

As most of the questions to be taken up by the separate leagues will not be disposed of finally until the joint session Thursday, no starting news is expected until that day. If there is to be any change in the sale of world series tickets, any change in the player limit or any ban on the broadcasting of ball games, it will have to be the result of joint league action.

Meetings today and tomorrow probably will be behind closed doors, carefully guarded.

Meantime, while the owners are talking politics and business, the managers will try to get together on trades. Bill Terry of the Giants and Max Carey of the Dodgers were conferred last night and again this morning and Carey also chatted in a corner with Burt Shotton of the Phillies.

Sidney Weil of the Reds was here and there with a basket on his arm. He wants to make many trades, but the other owners find it difficult to fill Sid's basket. He needs help, but the other magnates would like to get a little something in exchange. He could have made a deal with the Cardinals, but probably wanted Joe Medwick, George Watkins, Bill Hallahan and Billy Walker for Durocher. He also wanted Silas Johnson. And whether you've heard of it or not, Sam Breadon discarded his red coat and white whiskers several Christmases ago.

Giants to Get Bill Shores for Sam Gibson.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—As the latest move in their rebuilding program, the New York Giants today announced they virtually had completed a deal whereby they will acquire Bill Shores, right-handed pitcher, last year with Portland of the Pacific Coast League, in exchange for Sam Gibson, New York right-hander.

The Los Angeles club of the coast league announced it had obtained Fay Thomas, a right-handed pitcher, from Brooklyn of the National League.

There were rumors of a three-cornered deal brewing between Cleveland, Washington and New York of the American League, with the Yankees trying to get hold of a pitcher, but there were no details.

The National League directors, meeting behind closed doors, were understood to have renamed John Heydler as present for another four-year term. He has been head of the circuit since 1918.

JUST ANOTHER ALL-AMERICA: The U. S. Women's Field Hockey Team

Who's Who in The Big Trade

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—In parting with Glenn Spencer, who never attained a post as a genuine starting pitcher although he won 11 and lost 12 for the Pirates in 1931 and then skidded to four won and eight lost last season, and Dugas, a powerful but undeveloped youngster of 21, the Pirates apparently lost no strength while gaining one of the finest fielders in the league to team with "Big Poison" Paul, and "Little Poison" Lloyd Waner, in what now stands out as perhaps the best outfield in the National circuit.

In addition to Spencer, the Giants obtained in George Davis a fleet youngster who came up to the Phils last year after a banner season with St. Paul in the American Association and hit .309 in 137 games. Davis, a graduate of New York University, was fast enough to steal 16 bases, and hit 39 doubles. Fullis, going to the Phillies from the Giants after four years here, averaged .305 at bat but was discarded because of a regular post. He is 28 and hit .298 in 96 games last year.

Dugas, 21 years old, came to the Pirates at the close of 1931, from Kansas City, where he hit .419 for the season. He hit .237 in 85 games, mostly as a pinch hitter.

The departure of Lindstrom, a Giant favorite, had been foreseen for some time. His hitting fell off last year to .270 in 144 games, although in eight seasons here he averaged .325 and hit his peak with .379 in 1929.

There has been considerable talk that the falling off in his work had resulted from disappointment at the loss of Bill Terry, one of his best friends, to the management of the Giants upon the retirement of John McGraw last summer. It had been reported that in the event of a change Lindstrom was to receive the manager's post.

change for Sam Gibson, New York right-hander.

Shores, formerly with the Philadelphia Athletics, was a mainstay of the Portland pitching staff that won the 1932 coast league pennant. He pitched 34 complete games, winning 19 and losing 11, and allowing an average of 3.84 earned runs per game. Gibson, used most of the season for relief work, taking part in 41 games, won four games and lost eight for the Giants.

President Tom Turner of the Portland club indicated he and Manager Bill Terry of the Giants would get together later in the day to close the deal.

The Los Angeles club of the coast league announced it had obtained Fay Thomas, a right-handed pitcher, from Brooklyn of the National League.

There were rumors of a three-cornered deal brewing between Cleveland, Washington and New York of the American League, with the Yankees trying to get hold of a pitcher, but there were no details.

WIRAY'S COLUMN

Handsomeness Is Handsome

Does.

EARL MAESTRO having referred, his mantle as "handsome man in the ring" naturally falls on Frankie Battaglia, middleweight title aspirant.

Frankie, with his soft brown eyes and almost perfect physique, is one of the easiest of the easiest to look upon in the pugilistic galaxy of Adonises. He is only 22 years of age and whether in action or at rest, he makes a great impression.

And how that boy can fight, and hit! He's rated one of the best punchers in the game. And in action he moves around as easily as a trained dancer.

Battaglia, who has his recent fight indicate. Just now he is on the trail of the middleweight crown and if he can remain at 160 long enough he will win it. He is a 160-pounder, named Dave Shade, Ben Juby, Gorilla Jones and Marcel Thil, the European champion.

After Sharkey in 1934.

AFTER that, feeling sure that he would be the next contender to the heavyweight division, he wants to tumble the dancing master, Maxie Rosenbloom, from his light-heavyweight eminence and then go after the heavyweights.

Well, Frankie, "handsome" is as handsome does. You have everything that goes to make a champion. But the good looks are a handicap. Very few fighters are permitted to forget, by their families and girl friends, that the price of ring success is frequently a smashed nose-bridge and a couple of mangled ears.

Yes, There Is No Champion.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, through its coach and student body, displays some peevishness with the Dickinson football award of the national championship to Michigan.

The machinery by which national champion is determined under the Dickinson plan is hardly more certain than the comparative score system, which has no standing at all.

The fact is, there can be no national champion determined this year, except one based on purely personal opinion. Michigan has a fine team, beyond all question; but it has had some extremely tight squeaks and certainly did not look so very hot against an ordinary Princeton team or against some of the weaker eleven of the Big Ten.

Even though Michigan were not the way to contemplate title award, Southern California can hardly hope for a championship title with the fine Colgate team still unbeaten, untied and not even scored against, and with Pittsburgh still a threat on Jan. 1.

The door is definitely closed against the award of the official title to any school, on any basis that can be justified. Southern California has a very strong claim to the title and a victory for Pitt would undoubtedly convince most of us that the Trojans really "belong."

In the meantime, it looks like they have spur grapes, too, in California.

Took It on the Chin.

RAY STEELE may, as he explained, have hit Ed Lewis with his forearm, but the point of contact was a balled fist at the end of the arm, as is shown by an illustration in New York Daily News of last Tuesday.

The picture of a photograph shows a very clear picture of Steele striking Lewis with his clenched fist, the blow landing squarely under Lewis' chin.

Lewis has been hit both arms to seize Steele and it was at this moment that Steele struck.

As Mr. Carter Sees It.

SPEAKING of "shooting matches" there was the late Lewis-Steele matter in New York. Still considered as an unfinished business by many. Lloyd Carter, who was instrumental in bringing Steele to St. Louis and working him into the Lendons group, expressed the thought that the fight was about the only fellow of Steele who was not greatly surprised when Ray failed to clean up Lewis.

Lewis may be old but he's still a remarkable man. Carter said "When he was training for Shikar some months ago, I was providing him with training partners and he could not get them too big or too tough for Ed. Even though he was out of condition then, none of the men I got for him could handle him—he'd throw them all one after the other. And he did not ask any 'favors' of them! Just wanted them to do all they could to him."

"I told Steele and friends of his that they were taking Lewis too lightly, because he's a very difficult man for any opponent to throw. Steele is a fine wrestler, and hard as nails. I thought he might wear Lewis out. He might have done it had the bout gone on, but I don't know. Reports say Lewis was strong. Of course he got home-town refereeing and Steele got the worst of that. But I still think that Lewis is a mighty tough man to handle."

Here's One for Sandow.

BILL SANDOW is putting on the old gag of having Everett Marshall meet two opponents in the same ring, the same night.

The queer part of it is that last Friday, before Sandow had had a chance to say his speech at ringside here, Ed Lewis had sent word to this writer that he would like to meet both London and Steele in the same ring the same night.

Monneur Jacques Curley was his spokesman in the matter and assuming he had authority to talk for Lewis, the proposal is a masterpiece in expression of the low esteem in which the Strang-

Father Is Coach, Son a Player on Minnesota's Five

By the Associated Press.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 13.—NE Dave MacMillan says to another quite often, these days, "Get in there, watch your team work, and let's have some scores."

It's the head Minnesota basketball coach, sending into action his son, Dave Jr., on the team with which he hopes to win the Big 10 title.

Young Dave, only a sophomore, is doing pretty well against veteran competition as he fights for a job as a regular. He has been in both practice games played thus far, as a reserve forward.

"If I had the nerve to put him in there he might be better than two or three of the boys now playing," he said. "But he is a little slow and of course lacks experience. He is a good shot and I expect him to help me pretty much, this season."

Young Dave came to the Gophers by way of University High School in Minneapolis, where he was an outstanding athlete. He is 19 years old, is six feet tall and weighs 170 pounds.

BABE DIDRIKSON STILL STANDS SUSPENDED BY NATIONAL A. A. U.

By the Associated Press.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 13.—Mildred Babe Didrikson, noted girl athlete of Dallas, Tex., was today declared suspended from further amateur competition by the registration committee of the Southern Amateur Athletic Union following an investigation into her alleged endorsement of an automobile for advertising purposes.

Lawrence D. Benedetto, head of the Registration Committee and secretary of the Southern A. A. U., who conducted the inquiry at the instance of National A. A. U. officials, said the suspension would remain in effect until Miss Didrikson had produced the original or a photostatic copy of a purported release authorizing the advertisement, for examination by his committee. He said the committee had been unable to procure the original release or a copy from the advertising agency.

Miss Didrikson, who has been called world champion of women's athletics as a result of victories in Olympic and other competition in varied branches of sport, recently denied she had authorized the use of her photograph and endorsement in connection with an automobile advertisement which came to the attention of the National A. A. U.

Will Select Referee.

The referee to handle the wrestling events between Everett Marshall and Rudy Dusek, and Marshall and Hans Kampfer will be named today by Commissioner Seneca C. Taylor, it has been announced. Whether a time limit will be placed upon the bouts, which will feature a card at the Arena Dec. 21, will also be decided.

ler holds the two leaders of the rival group.

The Lewis "def" ought to be answered by the opposition, since they have accepted in principle that it is all right for one man to challenge two others, as shown by the Marshall affair.

Lewis probably doesn't expect to be taken up on this point. But it's a fine opportunity for London and Steele to show up the aged gent by accepting.

Twenty Players Enough for Any Baseball Club

—Bucky Harris.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Amid the general unrest and desire for change that envelops the big league baseball meeting, there is a concrete desire on the part of seven other American League clubs to do everything possible to cramp the style of the world's champion New York Yankees—either by refusing to be a party to trades that might strengthen the Yanks or by sponsoring legislation designed to embarrass the champions.

It was with the latter idea in mind that Bucky Harris, manager of the Detroit Tigers, told the writer today he favored cutting the player limit all the way down to 20 men. Some managers advocate 22 as the limit and a few radical pilots want it fixed at 21. Now Harris would slash it by three, figuring that such a move would prevent the Yanks from making a runaway race of it next year, should some of their veterans become incapacitated in mid-season.

"Twenty players are enough for any club," said the dapper Bucky. "A team can get along easily with four outfielders, six infielders, two or three catchers and seven or eight pitchers. For emergency purposes, every club has a few young fellows out in the minors, subject to 24-hour recall, that nobody else can grab."

Would Balance the League.

A 20-player limit would balance things up a lot by ripping off a few players from the more powerful clubs. The Yanks, for instance, would have to lose some of their substitutes like Sam Byrd, Myril Hoag, Dixie Walker, and a few of their younger pitchers.

"These players are good enough to hold down a regular berth on almost any other ball club, and a lower team that had $7000 to spare could grab one of them at the waiver price."

Forcing the more powerful teams to part with substitute players of major league caliber, Harris pointed out, would help the double A leagues, which would get the men who were not claimed by other big league teams on waivers.

Ballplayers Invade Bowling Alley and Win Tenpin Match

Johnny Tobin and five major and minor league baseball stars invaded the Century bowling alleys Sunday and administered a beating to the Foam Blowers in a three-game match. The ballplayers won by a scant margin of 14 pins, scoring 2746 to 2732.

Heine Meine, star hurler of the Pittsburgh Pirates and Luxembourg's most famous citizen, made the game look easy to the large crowd that witnessed the match by twisting his hook into the 1-2-3 pocket for a 678 total. He scored single game counts of 211, 268 and 199.

Meine's teammates were Andy High, Allyn Stout, Freddie Hoffman and Oscar Rootger, made Charlie Mool did the best work for the Foam Blowers, rolling 604. A return match will be bowled at the Century alleys in the near future.

Herbie Freeman to Wrestle Newcomer on Coliseum Card

Promoter Bill Berberich today announced that 30-minute wrestling card on Thursday night at the Coliseum. Herbie Freeman, Jewish grappler, and Luigi Bacigalupi, Italian, have agreed to trade grips and leglocks. The Italian will be a newcomer on St. Louis mats.

Berberich also has signed Pat McMill to take on Sid Westrich, Hungarian, in another abbreviated struggle. Mike Romano, another Italian, and Ivan Vacturoff, of Russia, clash in another preliminary.

Sander Szabo, Czech, has informed Berberich he will be in good physical condition when he tackles Ed "Strangler" Lewis, world champion in New York State, in the feature finish battle on the card. Lewis, after defeating Ray Steele, George Calza, Jack Sherry, McCreedy and other wrestlers, also will come here in tip-top shape.

Click Held to Draw.

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 13.—Joe Glick, veteran Brooklyn welterweight, fought 10 rounds to a draw with Alfredo Gaono of Mexico City here last night.

Would Make Fine Eleven.

Players now with the eleven in the St. Louis (professional) Soccer League, who graduated from the Carondelet Club division of the Muncy circuit, would make up a pretty fair eleven if placed on the same club and given a bit of coaching in team play. Only two athletes would have to be changed from their regular positions to make up an "All-Star" team from Carondelet players.

For instance, for goal the club would have Ed Albrecht, with Dave Barnett in reserve. Manuel Cuto and Joe Diaz would make up a fine fullback division, while Tom Heid-enry, Berny Chartrand, Johnny Kane and Mickey O'Hara are available for halfback duty. Joe Hennessy, now out with an injured knee; Eddie Kane, Dinty Moore, Lou Ahrens and Mac Smith are all capable forwards. Diaz and Smith, regular halfbacks, have played in the positions to which they are named on the All-Stars.

There's no lack of talent. Cuto, Eddie Kane and Smith have played an important part in the late success of the Millers. Heid-enry, Moore, Ahrens and Diaz are rated with the stars of the league.

Does Not Like New Rule.

Dominic Preston, a soccer follower from Gillespie, Ill., does not like the new "penalty box" rule recently passed by officials of the league. Preston thinks that the rule will do more harm than good. He writes in part:

"I think this plan will do more harm to soccer in St. Louis than good. According to rules of

"I think that allowing any player who has been suspended for rough play to come back after a brief penalty will encourage the players to PLAY THE MAN more than the ball and this will lead to trouble. Soccer when played correctly does not need any rough play. It is, and always should be a game of skill, science and speed."

Mr. Preston brings out some good points, but the league officials are going to give the "penalty box" idea a thorough trial before deciding on its success or failure.

They're Well Scattered.

Just how soccer players scatter over a few seasons is indicated by the case of the New Bedford eleven, which defeated the St. Louis club for the national title last season and won the U. S. honors as Fall River the year before.

Four members of the team, also McNabb, Werner, Nelson, Bill McPherson and Bill Watson are now members of the St. Louis club; Billy Goss, a fine inside forward, is a free agent; Tommy Florie and Montgomery are with Pastoret, while Ted White, Rebello, Campbell, Reder and Caldwell are with Fall River. Bert Patenaude, the team's star center forward, was two years ago, is now playing with the German-Americans of Philadelphia.

University Football Revenues For 1932 Shrank 27 Per Cent Financial Statements Indicate

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—College football revenues, based on a cross-section of financial reports made available to the Associated Press, declined approximately 27 per cent for the 1932 season.

This compares with an estimated 15 per cent drop in attendance, a difference due to the fact that ticket prices generally were reduced throughout the country or scaled in ratio to their desirability.

Cash customers, although willing to pay the top prices of former years for the season's most attractive gridiron offerings, manifested a distinct unwillingness to pay as much as formerly for a view of the proceedings from the end zones or outside the 10-yard line.

Custodians of the intercollegiate gate receipts were in most cases reluctant to give actual figures, a combination of estimates and percentages furnished the Associated Press revealed declines ranging from 5 to 50 per cent within a representative group of 40 colleges and universities.

Washington Receipts Increased. A small and widely separated group reported increases, including Brown, Purdue and Wisconsin. Columbia's receipts went up, despite some reduction in prices, but official figures were withheld. Oklahoma announced an increase of $3000 in receipts over 1931.

Washington University (St. Louis) and Mississippi State also reported gains in home-game receipts, due to schedule advantages.

The extent of Notre Dame's contribution to the national football business was shown by the aggregate "gate" of $1,415,000 for all nine games played by the Ramblers in their coast-to-coast program. This was a reduction of only about 10 per cent as compared with last year's receipts of $1,554,000, which, of course, were shared with Notre Dame's rivals at home and abroad.

CARAS IS TIED WITH GREENLEAF IN CUE TOURNEY

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—The road that Ralph Greenleaf must travel to retain his national pocket billiard championship grows much tougher from now on.

The dapper New Yorker has hung up four successive victories in the current championship tournament, but his five remaining matches all will pit him against more strenuous opposition than he so far has been forced to overcome.

Of these, Caras, Rudolph and Natalie are a step behind with Jimmy Caras of San Jose, Cal., Walter Franklin of Kansas City, Frank Taberski of Schenectady, N. Y., and George Kelly of Philadelphia. Ahead of him were battling with Jimmy Caras of Washington, Del., Erwin Rudolph of Cleveland; Pasquale Natalie of Chicago; Andrew Ponzil of Philadelphia and Bennie Allen of Kansas City.

NEW ORLEANS RACING RESULTS, ENTRIES AND SELECTIONS

TIGERS TO PLAY
ST. L. U. OCT. 21,
BEARS NOV. 18

By the Associated Press.

COLUMBIA, Mo., Dec. 13.—The University of Missouri will open its 1933 football season here Oct. 7, with a doubleheader with the Northeast Missouri State Teachers College of Kirksville and Central College of Fayette.

The scheduling of two games on a single afternoon's program, a practice becoming prevalent in the East, was approved here late yesterday by the Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics. It will be the first doubleheader ever scheduled by Missouri.

The committee also approved a game with St. Louis University, in St. Louis, Oct. 21, and advanced the date of the Nebraska game here from Thanksgiving day to Nov. 4.

Dates of other Big Six Conference games, and one with Washington University, previously had been set.

Rearranging of the Nebraska game leaves an opening for return of the Missouri-Kansas classic to Thanksgiving, where it had been for years. Missouri athletic authorities have expressed a desire for the Kansas game to be held on Thanksgiving again, although the change is not expected for two years.

Although the announced date for the Missouri-P. St. Louis U. game is Oct. 21, Coach Chas. Walsh of the Billikens said today that it hasn't been definitely decided whether to play the game on the afternoon of Saturday, Oct. 21, or on the preceding Friday night.

The 1933 schedule:
Oct. 7—Kirksville Teachers and Central College at Columbia. (Doubleheader.)
Oct. 14—Kansas State at Columbia.
Oct. 21—St. Louis U. at St. Louis.
Oct. 28—Iowa State at Ames.
Nov. 4—Nebraska at Lincoln.
Nov. 11—Oklahoma at Columbia.
Nov. 18—Washington at St. Louis.
Nov. 25—Kansas at Lawrence.

The fall had been awarded to Casey Kazanjian, 200, former Stanford weight throwing star, after 20 minutes grappling.

BOWLING NOTES

Most of the star bowlers of the city will be seen in action at Bob Harris' Florias alleys this week-end when seven squads of tenpinners will take the drives in the eight-game individual classic. The first squad will bowl at 2 p. m. Saturday and the final at 9:15 p. m. Sunday. Among the crack pinners who will compete are: Otto Stein Jr., Jim Wilson, Ery Brunmann, Frank Kastner, Fred Taff, Lowell Jackson, Ray Holmes, Ben Cohen and Hank Summers.

The Washington Alley five, composed of Fred Taff, Harry Welch, "Bud" Schmitt, John Gromacki, Al Krekel and Chris Sottrill, has issued a challenge to any "house" team in the city for a home-and-home tenpin match. Matches with the Washingtons can be arranged by calling Mel Stein at Garfield 2893.

F. Blasberg topped the bowlers in the South Side Booster League at the Cinderella alleys last week with a 658 series. A four-way tie for second place resulted in last week's play, when the Davids won three games from the Sunshines. The Davids, South Side Leaders, Al Ziegenhain-Blasts are deadlocked for the runner-up position, one game in back of the leading Ziegenhain and Sons team. E. Mass and George Bohmeyer are tied for high average, each having a mark of 135.

The Popeyes surprised the bowling enthusiasts at Peterson's alleys last night by turning in a scratch score of 885 and winning one game from the Stars in the Newspaper League. The Popeyes opened with 748 and closed with 733 for a total of 2438. The Stars rolled 2801, with games of 933, 917 and 948. Henry Nordman was the star for the Popeyes, getting 679, which included a high game of 243. Clay Kerley topped 637 pins to pace the Stars.

The States were on the short end of a tight tussle with the Moon Mullins in another Newspaper League match, losing the first game by 19 pins and dropping the second, 923 to 924. They got the breaks in the third game and won, 980 to 979. Three of the States' bowlers hit better than 600. Schneider's slow ball topped 623 pins, usually getting 611 and wrestling 602. Peters, with 584, was high for the Mullins team. In the final match on the card, the Intertypes downed the Ed Wrays, 2 to 1, with Fieshergens getting 582 to lead the winners and Geldbach and Elfert dividing the honors for the Wrays, each scoring 545.

The Industrials will go into the second half of a six-game match with the Ridge Fives with a 147-pin lead, which was gained Sunday at the Wellston alleys. The final three games will be bowled at the Delmar Recreation next Sunday. The Industrials totaled 2872 to 2525 for the Ridge.

Charles Fisher was the star in the Wellston Chamber of Commerce League this week, rolling games of 224, 190 and 259 for a total of 673. His score helped the Eastons amass 2819 pins and win three games from the Wellstons. Other high scores: Bernie Farishon, 628; John J. Fitzgerald, 620, and Claude Ryan, 578.

Captains of the class basketball teams at Webster this year are: Seniors, Miss Florence Brooker, St. Louis; juniors, Miss Helen McGilvray, Odessa, Mo.; sophomores, Miss Patricia DuVal, Webster Groves, and freshmen, Miss Mary Margaret Tobin, Little Rock, Ark.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—A few ripples of selling appeared in the stock market today, depressing some of the leading issues a point or so. The list was extremely sluggish, however, with transfers aggregating only 700,000 shares. The closing tone was slightly heavy. Recent bullish activity was continued, and traders appeared to be awaiting the concluding developments in the war debt controversy, or developments in any other quarter that might provide clues to the trend.

Among issues losing about 1/4 point were such shares as Allied Chemical, American Can, American Telephone, Case, Union Pacific, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Seaboard Oil, du Pont, U. S. Steel common and preferred, New Steel common, International Harvester and Central.

Pennsylvania was firm for a time, but closed unchanged. General Motors was about steady. Air Reduction gained a point.

In commodities, wheat again weakened at Chicago, partly in sympathy with Winnipeg. Closing prices were 1/2 to 1/4 cents a bushel lower. Corn declined 1/4 cent. Cotton, however, held up well, closing unchanged to 20 cents a bale lower.

Foreign exchanges stiffened after early weakness. Sterling recovered an early loss and ruled 1/4 of a cent higher at 82.25 for cables. The French franc stiffened, after touching a new low for the movement.

Watchful Waiting.
Wall Street again adopted a watchful waiting attitude, hoping for some break in the news that would provide market impetus. The under year-end influences, nothing particularly stimulating from business barometers was to be expected until January.

The efforts of the railroads to induce their organized workers to accept a continuation of the war debt wage reduction which expires Feb. 1 attracted considerable interest.

Preliminary to the new Treasury financing operations, the weekly Federal Reserve statement of reporting 101 cities showed member banks in decline in credit. Loans declined $49,000,000. Investments declined $112,000,000, mostly at the expense of securities other than Government obligations which registered a shrinkage of $72,000,000 simultaneously, net demand deposits were up $195,000,000, time deposits, $24,000,000, and Government deposits, $35,000,000.

Railroad Reports.
The statement covered the week ended last Wednesday. Next week's statement, which will give effect to the new quarterly financing of the Government, is expected to register the sharp increase in member bank investments which may send the consolidated credit to a new high mark for the year.

Final railroad reports for October showed some rather striking gains in net income over the figures for October, 1931. New York Central reported net income of $45,716 against a deficit of $1,200,000 in October, 1931, while a deficit of $1,200,000 in October, 1931, was considerably less than the $2,000,000 loss for the corresponding 1931 period.

CHINESE-RUSSIAN AMITY VIEWED AS GAIN FOR NANKING

taining diplomatic relations with one another.

Agreement Said to Be Most Unwelcome to Japan.

By the Associated Press.
TOKIO, Dec. 13.—A Government spokesman declared today that resumption of diplomatic relations between Russia and China was most unwelcome to Japan.

"The elements most disturbing to the peace of the world now have joined hands and Japan stands squarely against these forces," the spokesman said.

"The question for the Powers is whether to allow the forces of destruction to rule in the Orient or the forces of consolidation. The resumption of Russian-Chinese relations poses this issue squarely. Beside the future of Manchuria is comparatively insignificant.

The Foreign Office said that 24 hours before the Geneva announcement assistant Commissioner for Foreign Affairs Karakhan informed Charge d'Affaires Amoh at Moscow that the Russian-Chinese agreement had been reached.

According to the Tokyo spokesman, undoubtedly prospects for a Russian-Japanese non-aggression pact have been greatly diminished.

The spokesman said Tokyo long had known China was seeking a Russian agreement but was proposing conditions unacceptable to Moscow. He thought the prospect that the Chinese-Japanese dispute over Manchuria would be submitted to a commission of conciliation including Russia, as proposed at Geneva, caused China to abandon these conditions and hasten the agreement.

CHARGES AIR MAIL COSTS ARE INFLATED

Expert Reports and House Committee Considers New Policy.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The House Postoffice Committee today voted to appoint a sub-committee
to decide upon a new Federal air mail policy. Dr. James Crane of Harvard, who made a special investigation for the committee, had just recommended drastic changes in existing laws.

Some carriers of air mail, he said, were increasing reported operating costs to prevent reductions in subsidies.

"One operator told me confidentially that he proposed to show higher operating costs," Crane said. "I think the Post Office Department should know about that."

The president of the Brantiff Airways, Paul Brantiff of Oklahoma City, said his company was operating a line paralleling a subsidized line to show that "we are doing cheaper and make a profit" without a subsidy.

Dr. Crane said the Government could save $2,500,000 a year by discontinuing the Southern air mail through Dallas to Los Angeles and 29 feeders. He recommended that the total air mail subsidy be reduced $1,000,000 each year for the next 10 years.

Crane, who made a study of air
mail at the committee's request,
listed six recommendations, including an immediate cut of $1,000,000
in Federal appropriations for the service and more rigid limitations
on the Postmaster-General's power
to grant extensions and make rates.

In urging a field audit of the accounts of all carriers, Crane said:
"One large operator reported its operating expenses to the Postoffice Department last year to be a sum over $900,000 larger than the report of operating expenses for the same year which it submitted to its board of directors."

WATER SERVICE RESTORED AT ALTON; ICE JAM BROKEN

Pumping Is Resumed After Nine Hours; Trucks Keep State Institution Supplied.

Water service was restored in Alton at 8 o'clock last night, nine hours after ice barricades had stopped up the Mississippi River
intakes of the Alton Water Co., leaving the city without service.

By 11 p. m. pumps were in full operation and water was being supplied throughout the entire district served by the company, including
the State Hospital for the Insane, on the outskirts of the town. This institution, with a population of 1600, was supplied during the emergency with water hauled on trucks.

Water company officers attributed the trouble to the low stage of the river and to the failure of a pump after the intakes were barricaded. The plant is a mile and a half above the business section. Schools were closed yesterday. Water was furnished free to all applicants by the Owens-Illinois Glass Co., which has its own wells.

Responding to a Two No-Trump Opening Bid

I HAVE described the responses with minimum hands, whether short-suited or containing a five-card suit. We are now concerned with hands which justify a slam-try from the responder's point of view, and with which he must therefore make a response other than the minimum "three no-trumps." My last article dealt with the fairly simple situation where the responding hand, having no five-card suit to bid, can respond only in raises of the no-trump declaration. I wish next to consider responding hands with one or more suits to bid, strong enough for slam tries.

When to Assume Immediate Responsibility for a Slam Development.

The same principle applies here as throughout my system—when assured of another chance to bid, do not force except to deliver a message which you can make clear only by forcing at this time, to convey very definite information which is not dependent on any subsequent support or confirmation from the opening bidder. You know that the opener will make another bid—generally three no-trumps—if you take him out in a suit by bidding three or four. This is a minimum response, but one which opener will, nevertheless, not pass. You will have another chance to bid if your hand requires it. An immediate force (jump takeout in four of a suit) should therefore only be made when you can virtually assure your partner that there will be no loser in that suit, that it is good for more tricks, and that, in addition, your hand contains, for entry, a primary trick outside the long suit. Your suit-holding must therefore be of five or more cards containing two of the top three honors. This usually makes the suit solid, as a two-no-trump opening bid is not made on a hand without at least a queen in its weakest suit.

A Sure Basis for a Slam Try.

There is no "if" about this suit; there is no "if" about your hand. It will presumably take six tricks in the play, and your partner knows that five of them are in the suit named. If he holds three of the suit, he can positively count on discarding two losers in other suits on your good suit. If he holds only A x or K x there is a chance of losing a trick to the jack and he should take that into account in his next response. However, generally a two no-trump bidder will hold three to the ace or king, or else his doubleton will be A J, K J or he may hold Q J x, and then no allowance need be made for a possible loser in the suit.

Signing Off Without Fessing.

If he develops the slam-try by bidding another suit, by steering him back to no trumps you are not proclaiming additional values of any kind. You are merely showing a preference for the safer and higher ranking contract. With the two above hands, your second bid should be a minimum return to no trumps, even if he bids five diamonds over the first bid you made, do not rebid the same values. The slam decision is up to your partner.

AUTHOR'S NOTE: These answers are given from the scientific point of view. Not all moral questions can be answered with absolute scientific accuracy, but no decision as to what is morally right is possible without science. Science puts the rights of organized society above the rights of individuals.

1.—In most cases Yes. If it is a harmful or evil desire, getting it out of your system by substituting a new and higher desire. Read that famous sermon of Thomas Chalmers, "The Expulsive Power of a New Affection." A new, inspiring affection drives out every desire except itself. That is why the war emptied one-fourth of the insane hospitals of America. Just the difference between the positive and the negative life. Try it.

2.—Yes, much better, on the average. Vitel, psychologist of Pennsylvania University, has shown that when women drive the same number of miles, in the same kind of cars in all kinds of weather, they have at least two and a half times as many accidents and the accidents cost three times as much.

3.—Character means such traits as honesty, loyalty, patience, self-sacrifice, holding to an ideal, etc. Psychologists have tested large numbers of men and women on all these traits and can find no great difference. The answer of science is, No.

Timely Help

OFTEN it happens that a child in the course of his work or play encounters difficulties which baffle him.

The wagon won't turn, no matter how much or how hard he tugs and twists and pulls. The paint runs even when he takes great pains to brush it on with care. The puzzle parts simply won't fit together.

The child is rare who at such moments calmly sets himself to figure out what is wrong with his method and then patiently tries different ways until he has solved his problem.

Usually after a moment of blind and futile struggle during which he attempts to learn the result he wants by main force, he gives up and turns in destructive wrath upon the things that behave so obstinately.

This is, of course, very silly. The child needs to learn that under such circumstances he must keep his temper and use his head. This is best accomplished by just a little help at the psychological moment.

Helping him over the worst part of the difficulty, showing him quietly how he can solve it for himself another time, shows him the advantage of maintaining an intelligent, purposeful attitude instead of indulging in an emotional explosion.

The need for help is indicated, too, when the child after exerting himself to accomplish some lengthy task finds himself near the end and tired to finish it alone.

Help in these instances makes it easier for the child to learn self-control, perseverance and patience in relation to his work—useful attitudes that enable him to use his abilities effectively.

EVERYDAY RELIGION

By THE REV. JOSEPH FORT NEWTON

THE GOLDEN RULE

TO PRACTICE the Golden Rule, asks for love and wisdom, but also for the imagination to put ourselves in the place of another, to sit where he sits and see things from his angle. To the promptings of love we must add "the moral obligation to be intelligent," else we run a risk of injuring our fellow man by helping to make him greedy, selfish, exacting and as flabby as a jellyfish, if not a miserable parasite.

A case in point is the story in the life of Samuel Butler, the famous author of "The Way of All Flesh," of his dealings with his friend, Paul. He met his friend in New Zealand, and, as Paul was in bad health and poor, Butler paid his way to England and agreed to give him $1000 a year for three years, while he studied law. Butler fulfilled his promise not only for three years, but for 33 years, often when he himself was poor.

In secret Paul earned at times $4000 a year, and died leaving an estate of $45,000, without remembering Butler in his will. The point is not the injury done to Butler, but as that was, but the injury to the man who sinned against him—a sin encouraged by an extraordinary kindness, until his soul must have been rotten within him. Butler, who did not profess to be a Christian, said very simply:

"I felt pretty sure I was doing a great deal too much, but I had rather have done a great deal too much than a little too little. My conscience is absolutely clear of all offense toward him, save that of having made it so deplorably easy to do things which, if I had made

Of course, such a case is as exceptional as it was outrageous, but it goes to show that we may do good in a stupid, easy-going way, and actually do more harm than good. Also, we must avoid what a recent novelist called "the snake of unselfishness," by which he meant that it is easier, and less trouble, to be soft and sentimental, oftentimes, when it is our duty to be stern, lest we undermine the moral stamina of those whom we serve. Still, it may be better to do too much than a "little too little," as Butler put it.

One tablespoon butter.
One-half teaspoon vanilla.
Mix sugar, chocolate, milk and butter. Boil gently, stirring frequently until soft ball forms, when portion is tested in cold water. Set aside 10 minutes. Add vanilla and beat until thick and creamy. Frost brownies. Cut in bars or sticks.

SEEN in THE STORES

By SYLVIA

A handsome monogrammed clip made of silver or gold and maroon will be the type of gift which a girl will use often and always appreciate. These clips are so versatile that one of them can go almost everywhere the owner does. It need not always adorn a dress because it clips as well on to a bag or on to a hat. Give your girl the clip, and let her figure out all of the places to wear it.

Clothes hampers no longer are merely utility items to get in the way and make a housewife wish she could get along without them. I saw one which fools the public into thinking it a decorative piece of furniture. It is made in a half-circle so that it may be pushed against the wall. The flat top will hold a lamp or sewing basket. The material is wood and the color a pastel green. There are others in this same convenient shape with a mahogany finish.

If you are looking for something especially spiffy to give a young girl as a Christmas gift here is a suggestion. Why not make her a present of a comb vanity case so that she can arrange her curls in public? One case that I discovered is of navy blue moire. It has a fan-shaped mirror which slips out by pulling a festive tassel. The case is decorated in two shades of blue, and silver enamel.

Among ornamental smoking accessories is a cigarette box which sits regally on a table and pretends to be a series of four small booklets with hand-tooled leather bindings. When you read the title you will find that each one heralds a favorite brand of cigarettes. Each looks like a separate book but all are fastened together into one combination cigarette container.

Humpty-Dumpty and Bo-Beep have stepped out of the story books and live on a table where they make themselves useful as well as entertaining. Jack-in-a-Box is there, too, as are some other familiar characters. Their new purpose in life is to shed some light on the nursery. These lamps have parchment shades decorated with bright colored characters.

They call this bag the "six-a-dix" primarily because it is supposed to be carried any time after 6 o'clock. A two-color version combines gray, either black or white, is used for its covering, and there are two dancing figures portrayed in a corner decoration. The figures are of brilliant white with simulated pearls for heads. Inside the bag there is a cigarette compartment as well as a one for powder puff and coin purse.

The Ascot scarf is becoming more feminine in appearance, hence it uses flat crepe for its material and edges its ends with a shirred silk in a contrasting color. Two and three-color combinations are noted. A two-color version combines gray with brown. A three-color type selects white crepe for the scarf, green crepe for the shirred ends and black for a wide binding.

There is a clever powder compact which several shops display among their Christmas gadgets. It looks like a white enameled cigarette lighter, but if you turn it upside down and flip open a tiny top the powder sifts out as it would from a regulation bottle of talcum powder.

One of the loveliest blouses that I have seen among the late arrivals is made of an imported metallic fabric in an allover pattern. Modernistic gold leaves are scattered over its gleaming surface. A cowl neck proves that it need not worry about all of the newer types of necklines because it is graceful enough to hold its own. The sleeves are gathered at the edge so that they may be worn below or about the elbow. A fabric bow decorates one shoulder.

Not all the black glass trays which one sees in the shops are modernistic in design. There's an oval one, for example, which would be an excellent choice for a young girl's room. It displays a decorated figure of an old-fashioned girl in a pensive mood, with Cupid lurking in the background. These trays are used for perfume bottles and powder boxes. Each one is mounted on a felt base.

Negligees with a certain air of formality now can pose as hostess gowns. Among those which can claim this new distinction are gowns in jewel-toned velvet. Topaz velvet fashions one which uses kolinsky bands to edge its short sleeves. Another in turquoise blue with a surprise line has appliques of Alencon lace outlining its neck and edging its sleeves.

A child will have an earlier and more peaceful sleep if his largest meal is at noon rather than at night.

THE KIND OF GIRL MOST MEN ADMIRE

This is another in the series of articles written for the Post-Dispatch by the male movie stars. Tomorrow, Warren William will give his ideas of a girl most men would admire.

By BUSTER KEATON.

I WAS about eight years old when I had my first love affair. My parents and I in our vaudeville act, were playing in an amusement park. On the same bill was a clever little girl, about the same age, who did imitations. She was wonderful. I used to watch her imitate Frank Tinney and Nat Willis, Sarah Bernhardt and others.

Then, one afternoon, I met her. We both sneaked out the stage door, and rode on concessions at the park, for of course, they recognized the profession. We stole some corn and roasted it on the beach. Then our parents found us. We both got good lickings.

That cured me of love for a long time. I guess it did her, too. She never got married until a few months ago. Her name is Elsie Janis.

I guess a fellow is really in love when he thinks so much of the girl that he'll brave the spanking for her sake. But for a long time, in no matter what tender regard I held a lady, I always regarded that I regarded myself with a passion tenderer still.

I believe that men admire beauty. And I believe that this admiration takes on a deeper aspect when they learn to appreciate beauty of soul. A beautiful personality is the thing that we really regard with a feeling akin to love.

One type of man is the protective type—always anxious to protect somebody. He admires a fluffy little thing who talks baby talk. Some men like to be mothered themselves—and they admire the protective type of woman.

I am a comedian.

Naturally I admire Polly Moran. She can get laughs with a word or a gesture. She has one of the greatest senses of humor I have ever seen.

I imagine the Mexican gardener

BUSTER KEATON.

out in front of my bungalow could never admire a woman who doesn't love flowers and shrubs.

It all depends on the nature of the man.

If it wasn't for a difference of opinion there would be very few marriages—or horse races either.

FOLLOWING these articles there will be a series of features about celebrities of the film world, by Harry H. Niemeyer of the Post-Dispatch staff, written from Hollywood, where he will collect new facts and pictures of the people you like to see on the screen.

My FOOD and My FIGURE

As Told to Hannah Stein

By NORMA TALMADGE

"HOW to retain one's youthful figure," Norma Talmadge repeated. "That's an eternal question. Some take sensible measures to accomplish this end, others don't. I am around and worry until they get wrinkles on the face."

"My opinion on the matter is this: If you don't permit oneself to grow too thin either, because then one runs the hazard of the risk of losing strength. The wisest thing to do is to keep within sensible proportions. Though in my profession one has this, too, to think about: that the audience expects screen favorites to remain perennially young."

"It isn't always easy. We work so hard that in combination with our effort to stay thin we have reason to be very tired at the end of the day. We must keep up the discipline under a sort of military regime to uphold the illusion that an actress never grows old. That isn't easy when one spends weary months on a production that eventually comes smoothly to you and entertains you for an hour or two."

She contradicted our conception that play people have long days with many leisure hours.

She said that she got out of bed at 7 o'clock in the morning, and by 7:30 she already had had a cold bath and was fully dressed for breakfast. She ate sparingly of the ordinary breakfast food, because she felt distressed and unable to work on a full stomach.

At about 8 o'clock she started out on a long jaunt to the studio, alone. She said that at that hour of the day one could think best, and an actress had much to think of in working into the character she portrayed.

At 1 she took a vegetable luncheon in her dressing-room. Again alone so that she might have another opportunity to keep her mind on her role. She returned to work at 2, and stayed on until 4. Then home in the car and dinner, consisting chiefly of vegetables, meat only occasionally. And nearly every evening she would return to the projection room to see the result of the day's work before she took a drive through the country and went early to bed.

"Work and a fruit and vegetable diet keep my figure slim," she said.

Tartar Sauce

One-half cup stiff mayonnaise.
Two tablespoons chopped parsley.
Two tablespoons chopped pickle.
Two tablespoons chopped olive.
One teaspoon chopped onion or chives.
One-eighth teaspoon salt.
One teaspoon lemon juice.
Mix and chill ingredients. Serve in small glass dish.

GOOD TASTE

By EMILY POST

To Be a Better Guest

Dear Mrs. Post: I WAS visiting friends for a week and forgot to tip the maid before I left. She was very kind to me and went out of her way to make me comfortable. Is there anything I could do for her now?

Answer: Buy her a present now. And send it with a note telling her that you appreciate all that she did to make you comfortable during your visit.

My dear Mrs. Post: When receiving a party invitation with the initials R. S. V. P. on it, does that require an answer? And just what does R. S. V. P. stand for?

Answer: R. S. V. P. (or a rather better taste, R. s. v. p.) is an abbreviation of the French word "repondez s'il vous plait"—and means "Reply if you please, which is exactly what you do."

My dear Mrs. Post: I have committed an unforgivable breach of etiquette toward one of my very best friends. And I am most anxious to restore myself to be good graces. We, my husband and I, forgot to keep a dinner engagement. And worse still, we forgot that we had forgotten. Is there anything I can do to make amends?

Answer: There is nothing that you can do except to say how badly you feel. People of great social prominence or world-wide experience will forgive and forget readily. People with a modest opinion of themselves are apt to be deeply and unforgettably hurt. It is the hurt that only continued attentiveness—sometimes over a long period of time—can heal.

My dear Mrs. Post: (1) When I make an afternoon call on another woman, must I leave my husband's card, too? And please explain the why of this if I must? (2) Are evening calls in good taste?

Answer: (1) On an acquaintance, yes. On an intimate friend, no. A woman always pays a formal visit accompanied by her husband—actually, or by proxy with his card. (2) This is a matter of local custom. In New York, never; in smaller cities almost always.

So start with a light as bouillon with croquettes to serve goose instead, make your stuffing, steamed chestnuts, not more than two vegetables—a salad—a good side of apples and carrots, a piece of ginger in the apple ring, make a great lay on the top with French dressing. Naturally you expect a pig, but you don't have to mince pig, because by the time you eat it, you have no room for it. A herpet, peppermint ice will serve with the salad at table or in the kitchen.

An evening party in such a room, perhaps mean a night be blue lights at moonlight, with ready-made snow. Gifts could be amusing imitations bought—never should be the top of the tree be refreshments consisting of chicken or turkey salad, steamed chestnuts, and apples, ripe olives and adding the rum burn with coffee and mints. This is a buffet supper.

My dear Mrs. Carr: I WANT you to tell me how to make the hair. My hair is dark brown, a little lighter auburn. Is it possible to use permanent? I have often heard people's hair is red.

Why not just let your color Nature made it? Dark brown? Henna powder? Henna powder looks artificial. I should use peroxide and let it be your own color. If you are determined to have an expert, I can name a few. I will write, sending a stamped envelope, I can get dependable places. Why not ride on this fine train the next time you go east? IF YOU ASK
MY OPINION
by MARTHA CARR

My dear Mrs. Carr:
WE ARE going to be festive
this year, hard times or no hard times, and we would like a little of your help in the matter.
We notice that your ideas are always good, and seldom too extravagant. MARGARET AND BOB.

A Christmas Party.

Decorations—this is the first thought, of course, in arranging for Christmas festivities. Pine and cedar give such delightfully aromatic Christmas fragrance that they may be used without stint.

But more and more, glossy, thick
poly is liked for table decoration,
and those who can will be well-repaid if they take the trouble to buy some which comes from Oregon. It is the handsomest holly in the country; its leaves darker, thicker, glossier and its berries in larger clusters.

We are plentifully supplied in this part of the country with cedar and pine and if we do not care to make a trip out of town we can have the little tree stripped of its branches. And what would Christmas be without the hanging spray of mistletoe? It is a Derbyshire myth that it must hang overhead,
and is magic only as long as the berries last. Then it is said, too, that holly is hateful to witches.

Start with your doorway outside and your windows inside. This will inspire your guests to enter in festive mood. A tree on each side of the doorway or a large and beautifully thick wreath on the door with smaller ones to match in the windows. And of course the candle, signal to the carollers. Some use candelabra in each window.

A simple table decoration consists of holly in bowls at each end
and a hunchy centerpiece of pine branches and pine cones in the center. The linen cloth has most elegance, but runners of linen and cloth with the wood showing through are also used. And for a table with round amusing animals are with round head and body composed of popcorn, stuck together with twigs, or toothpicks
and with red paper, for legs going out with her about two months. What would you suggest?

KEEPING UP WITH THE LATEST STYLES
Another Fashion Article By a St. Louis Girl Who Knows Clothes

MISS PRIMM posing in the evening gown which she made. The dress is of heavy crinkled crepe in a deep blue. Sewing is Miss Primm's hobby.

Miss Minerva Primm, who wrote the following article and posed for the pictures, is the daughter of Mrs. Samuel S. Primm, 8015 Cabanne place, and a member of a prominent old St. Louis family. Her great-grandfather, Wilson Primm, was one of the early St. Louis judges.

AS FAR back as I can remember I have loved rich colors, the soft fabrics and the ever-changing styles that are so much a part of the world of fashion, just as they are a part of our own world. A piece of crimson brocade, an exotic bluish green silk, a rich purple velvet, or a combination of vivid colors in a striking design have always fascinated me.

I have been interested in so many different things in the last few years that only recently have I been able to spare the time to try my hand at this latest hobby of mine—a hobby that has turned out to be extremely interesting. Not so long ago, after looking at some particularly lovely dresses, and wanting to buy every single one of them, I decided that I would try to make some for myself. So with a pattern, yards of material, pins, needles, and thread, I started out on my first sewing jaunt. And what a jaunt it turned out to be—the prelude of many to follow. It proved so interesting and exciting that I couldn't resist making first one thing and then another—little dressing jackets, negligees, sport dresses, suits and even an evening dress. The last, which I would never have dreamed of attempting when I first began sewing, was not half so hard to make as I had anticipated, in fact, much easier than some of the other things.

The suit was a simple little affair, a semi-sport dress, with a tiny jacket, that is very wearable and practical. I have found it a very useful fall costume—and it really wasn't so awfully hard to make at all. The color of both the ensemble and hat is burgundy red; the fur collar is gray fur. I usually wear with it gray shoes and gloves, and carry a gray or red bag.

The evening dress has good lines, simple yet sophisticated. The decollete in back follows the new mode, rather high, but lower on one side than the other. The one shoulder strap of twisted material I thought novel and effective. I made this dress of a heavy, very deep blue crinkled crepe. Practically the whole dress is cut on the bias, and the hardest thing in making it was the cutting out—not the actual sewing. Blue, silver, or silver and gold sandals would look well with it, and practically any evening bag that matches or harmonizes with the shoes may be carried.

Spring will be here before long now, and I am looking forward to the new models, lighter materials and gay colors that she will bring with her. During the last year or so the fad for knitting has become so popular that I could not resist knitting and perling a few stitches myself. So right now, I am knitting a suit for spring. It is just as much fun as the sewing.

Another view of the same gown. Miss Primm suggests silver or gold sandals to go with the dress. Note the novel single shoulder strap of twisted material.

BEHIND THE SCREENS
By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Dec. 12.

GEORGE ARLISS is slipping, surely.

Until lately that 4:30 quitting time clause in his contract had been insisted upon religiously. Now, however, he has stayed overtime twice on one picture despite his watchful valet's importunities.

Once it was because a cigarette lighter refused to work, and he granted the extra time to complete the scene.

The other time—and this was laudable—he discovered a group of old ladies waiting to be seen by him, to be selected for parts. He stayed, insisted upon staying, because if he did not the women would have had to make a special trip the next day.

COLEEN MOORE has found a use for those gilt-edged stocks and bonds that looked so pretty in days before 1929. Fastened on a screen and neatly shellacked, they serve doubly as decoration and sober reminder for the future.

A medal for a new high in impromptu movie-making should go to the studio which, nearing the finish of a feature, let an important character actress acquire a beautiful tea gown for a scene which required her to walk out in street garb. The reason was that the script hadn't been completed yet—in fact, nobody yet knows how the story is to end.

Meaning no harm, but it sounded suspiciously as if that 73-year-old Mississippian who wrote me the other day about chances to become a screen writer was citing qualifications when he mentioned he was "poor" and "uneducated."

THAT ten-author story, "A Passage to Paradise," that Paramount is planning to give the screen is really not so novel as it would seem. Many of the best stories have that many writers, and more, working on them, and sometimes battling for credit.

Not often, however, occurs what actually did on a recent film, product of several scribes. After the preview they drew lots to decide which would "take the rap" and have his name on it.

I Can Settle Any Trouble
HAVE discovered a curious and comforting thing about trouble. I have discovered that if I can once settle a trouble INSIDE MYSELF, it's settled for good. There's nothing very unusual about that woman's bitter life. A worthless husband; a dead child; endless, weary labor to feed the little ones that are left. You know a dozen women whose experience is almost identical. But those other women took the count. This woman wouldn't! The same trouble, but she took it differently. Their lives were poisoned by hate and grief. She's kept hers clean and free.

Nothing unusual about the man's lot either. You know scores of other fellows who lost their small savings when the bank folded up—who haven't had work in months. They're shot. Aren't even trying any more. Just sit and snarl. Play with the idea of revolution. This other chap's gone to raising chickens. He's busted flat, but he looks five years younger. The same trouble but he took it differently. All of which doesn't mean that trouble is good thing. But it's an inevitable thing. Sooner or later we all must meet it. So then? So then it's up to us.

TROUBLE IS AS WE TAKE IT. TROUBLE IS WHAT WE MAKE IT. NOTHING CAN BREAK US IF WE REFUSE TO BE BROKEN. NOTHING CAN STOP US SAVE OUR OWN SURRENDER.

Growth Promotion
THE human body has been described fittingly as a mechanism which, at its conception, possesses a remarkable growth impulse, most of which is expended in the building of the body. The mother's body, and during the first few years of his life.

This growth impulse requires concrete substances for its expression. In other words, there is a native tendency in the infant and child to grow, but in order that this tendency might be fully realized, the individual must have food in adequate amounts.

What, however, constitutes adequate food? We have answered this question for a good many years in terms of a balanced diet, containing a sufficiency of proteins, carbohydrates and fats.

Now, however, we realize that these essential elements are not in themselves adequate. In addition to these building substances we also require what is called vitamin B2 or vitamin G.

Vitamin B2 was first described more than 15 years ago. At that time it was thought one element. More recently, however, it was shown that this vitamin is really made up of two separate parts, one which prevents degenerative changes in nerves, and another described as a growth-promoting and appetite-stimulating substance.

Much study has been devoted to the second portion of vitamin B2, called B2 or G, particularly with regard to its distribution in food materials.

It has been established that B2 is available in common foods in the following descending order: Dried or liver, dried yeast, meat (dried steak), milk solids, egg yolk, wheat germ, wheat bran, wheat pollard, dried peas, whole wheat, whole maize, and yellow, maize germ meal and milk.

Children whose growth and appetite appear to be unsatisfactory and who are free from organic diseases, should have as part of their dietary generous portions of the foods listed above.

Rolls placed in a paper bag with the end twisted securely and placed in a moderate oven for a short time will be as though freshly baked.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN.

"AND now what?" she asked with a beginning of sadness. He leaned forward until his face became a dark cloud hanging over her.

"I want you too much to leave you!" he said with almost a song in his voice. "I've never seen anybody so beautiful."

The strange thing about it was that Cavanaugh's words fell upon her like a kiss, chilling and freezing the heavenly feeling of her contentment.

This man who knew so much about women knew nothing. She had yearned for something more tender, more chivalrous.

Cavanaugh did not understand.

"I wanted it to be... different..." said Leni in a whisper his ears strained to hear.

His face hovered motionless, baffled. "How do you mean—different?"

Leni lifted her free hand and ran her fingers through his dark abundant hair. He was all man....

"Darling..." she whispered.

Cavanaugh's face descended until his mouth rested upon Leni's. Her lips lay motionless without any responding warmth under his kiss.

"What's the matter?" he asked.

"I don't know..."

Leni was surprised at this coldness of her heart. What had become of his power to thrill her? Where was the warmth that ought to be there?

"I only know," she said slowly, "that it's different now. Maybe it was that woman on the telephone. Maybe something you said. I'm afraid, perhaps..."

"Afraid of what?"

"Afraid you'll think I'm too cheap, maybe. I don't know about other women—only myself. There was something beautiful in it, but beauty is so fragile. There have been so many unbecoming things in my life—I want no more of them. Perhaps it is something no man can understand."

She looked up into his eyes, dark and fathomless pools. What could he—a man—understand of her, a woman? Did the man exist with the attuned fineness to understand the craving which she herself could not express in words.

"I'm not like these other women, dear," she said with kindly patience. "Around the studio I hear plenty of talk of men about women, and women about men. These women that men possess—they call them dames. They are so easy to capture. For a man as handsome as you, dear, they are waiting at every turn. Perhaps that is what I fear. I cannot be just one more dame, even to you, dear."

SHE had little of physical or mental energy left to convey what she felt. She wondered with a slight curiosity, if he realized how much of strength had exuded out of her. So many men would sense it—would press on to conquest through her helplessness.

"I want you to believe this," said Cavanaugh, measuring his words. "You are the first woman in my life I ever asked to marry me."

"But it's not marriage," cried Leni with a tinge of fierceness. "Marriage has nothing to do with it. Why do you waste your time on me? I am an eccentric! Perhaps I seek something that cannot exist."

Cavanaugh let go her hand and stood up beside the bed. Fishing in his pockets, he found a cigarette and lit it. Downstairs a deep-throated clock gonged its measure of eternity. He began to stride about the room like a restless animal.

"Why do you bother about me?" she half moaned. "There are so many others!"

Cavanaugh returned to the bed and stood looking down at her. Even in the insufficient light her hair on the pillow glinted like a scattered aura of gold.

"I bother with you," he said, "because I love you."

Leni gazed steadily at him with pupils widened by the darkness. She said the most banal thing he had ever heard her say.

"Have you said that to many women?"

"Lots of them," he admitted seriously. "But I was usually full of cocktails. I never meant it before."

Leni tried to drink in his words—tried to find in them the assurance of all she desired.

The desire to do something for her began to glide over him and he remembered that it was in his power to stand between her and disaster. Without him, Mulrooney would inevitably drag her through the muck of exposure. A new strength began to tingle in Cavanaugh. There would be relief for his feelings in action.

Essentially, he realized, he was not a lover. She had fascinated him and thrown him into an unfamiliar and bewildering rhythm.

He went back to the bed and sat down beside her again.

Her breathing was smooth and undisturbed. At last, in the midst of their great question, she had fallen asleep. It was incredibly youthful and naive. Cavanaugh could not help smiling.

In spite of everything that was to be faced he had a sense of coming back to earth, back to the normal things of life, through this little wave of amusement.

He took a folded quilt from the bottom of the bed and spread it over her. She remained motionless. He went to the windows and drew the heavy curtains and the morning sunlight would not disturb her sleep. These duties gave him

WITH the publication of two proverb pictures today, the second of the series of four Proverb Picture Competitions being held by the St. Louis Post-Dispatch is started. As with the first competition, the last pictures in which were published yesterday, there will be 14 pictures carried on week days in the Daily Magazine and in the Society Section on Sunday, each picture illustrating some familiar proverb. The purpose of the contest is to find the proverbs suited to the pictures, and to write, from words that are in those 14 proverbs, one original maxim.

If you sent in an entry to the first competition, that does not prevent you from taking part in this or following competitions, nor does it affect your standing in other competitions. The four competitions are independent of each other so far as the awarding of the prizes are concerned. In each of the competitions 90 prizes, totaling $300, and distributed as shown above, will be awarded. The last of the pictures in the first competition were published yesterday, but the formal closing of the competition will really be until midnight tonight, as all entries which bear a postmark prior to that time are eligible. The awards of the first contest will be announced Saturday, Dec. 17, in the Daily Magazine.

The same rules govern this contest as governed the first. Decide what proverb fits the picture, and write it in the space underneath the picture. Clip the picture and blank, and save until the last two pictures are published, when you will have 14. Write the proverbs in order of appearance on the entry form which will be published next Monday, and then compose one maxim of your own and write it on the entry form. Send the entry form together with the clipped pictures to the "Proverb Picture" Editor, St. Louis Post-Dispatch, St. Louis, Mo.

IN the inside pocket of his coat he carried the same automatic that had killed Karl Kruger. The whole project gave him a sense of exhilaration and a sense of superiority.

Behind the desk in the lobby the night clerk of the apartment house dozed at the switchboard. Otherwise he would have given Cavanaugh a message. As it was, Cavanaugh walked past the desk on the soft carpet without awakening the man.

The electric elevator took him to the fourth floor. Emerging, he walked slowly down the long corridor toward his quarters. A little of the glow was gone from him. He was tired and yawning for sleep.

It was always pleasant for Cavanaugh to get in late at night. His Filipino servant always waited up for him. The boy would draw a warm bath, fetch his pajamas and hang up his clothes.

When he was ready for bed Cavanaugh would sit down for a moment, light a cigarette and glance over any letters that had arrived. The boy would then be dismissed for the night and Cavanaugh, utterly free from insomnia, would be asleep almost as soon as he stretched his body between the fresh sheets. It was a pleasant routine of living and possible only to a man with a substantial income, an untroubled conscience and sound nerves.

MY Beauty Hint

By JANET CHANDLER.

BEAUTY as seen outwardly is the expression of the inward feeling. If you "feel good" physically and mentally you will have little worry concerning your outward appearance.

To have this inner good feeling I resort to the dance both as exercise and as a means of forgetting troubles. The dance also gives a person poise and rhythm, and they in turn make for beauty.

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS

Kindly tell me when payments start on the old age pension plan voted in Missouri at the late election.

J. J. J.

There is no old age pension law at the present time. What the voters did at the November election was to authorize the Legislature to pass such legislation. The new Senators and Representatives meet next month, but it is not at all certain that the pension law will be passed.

What are the latest figures as to the total vote in the recent presidential election: JOHN.

Returns are still being checked and compiled in a number of states, even at this late date. With more than 30 states complete, the record stood a short time ago as follows: Roosevelt, 22,314,058; Hoover, 15,735,474; Thomas, 905,813; and Foster, Communist, 69,104.

Was Hoover ever mentioned for a nomination by Democrats?

M.

Yes. When he returned to the United States just after the World War, and his political affiliations were not generally known, the suggestion was made that the Democrats could have no better candidate to succeed Woodrow Wilson than Herbert Hoover. He was not in a receptive mood, however.

I want to locate a child. What is the address of the city orphanage?

READER.

There is no municipal orphanage. In the yellow sheets of the telephone directory, under "Charitable Institutions," you will find the addresses and telephone numbers of a number of privately operated homes where the fatherless and motherless are cared for.

Bed Jackets Worn With Evening Gowns

WELL-DRESSED woman past middle age inspected the stock of the new velvet bed jackets in the lingerie section of a large department store.

"I believe this one will do," she said to the salesgirl as she selected an unlined short waisted model in Patou's new green.

"But my dear," interposed her shopping companion, "I thought you were looking for a jacket to wear with evening gowns."

"So I am," responded the first shopper, "and here it is—or will be when I add cuffs made out of that sable collar I have. It will be just the thing to wear with low-backed evening gowns at home yet it will keep my shoulder blades warm."

And thus was demonstrated an extra way to use some of the attractive new bed jackets of velvet, and slowly add milk. When soft dough forms, pat it out and fit over apples. Make four holes in top. Bake 30 minutes in moderate oven. Serve warm.

A few years ago bed jackets were considered gifts for grandmothers, but many of this season's variety will go back with their new owners to college after Christmas.

Exceedingly youthful are the unlined chiffon velvet jackets the short sleeves of which are edged in ostrich. Another clever model is of crepe and has long fringe set in just below the shoulder line in front. Then there are more tailored styles in heavy crepe or satin. They can be had in white, black, pastel shades or vivid colors. There are jackets of sheer chiffon, lace encrusted. Similar styles can be had in crepe or satin in the new lingerie shades.

The new knit or crocheted models look like anything else but bed jackets for declining years. They are youthful and jaunty. Some of the very lightest are lined with the sheerest of chiffon.

Apple Pudding

Three cups sliced apples.
Two-thirds cup sugar.
One teaspoon cinnamon.
Three tablespoons butter.
Two-thirds cup water.
Mix ingredients and place in bottom of a buttered pan. Cover with the crust.

Crust

Two cups flour.
One-half teaspoon salt.
One-half cup lard.
Two-thirds cup milk.
Mix flour and salt. Put in lard and slowly add milk. When soft dough forms, pat it out and fit over apples. Make four holes in top. Bake 30 minutes in moderate oven. Serve warm.

Vanilla Sauce

One cup sugar.
Two tablespoons flour.
One and two-thirds cups water.
Four tablespoons butter.
Two teaspoons vanilla.
One-fourth teaspoon nutmeg.
Blend sugar and flour. Add water. Cook slowly until thick sauce forms. Boil two minutes. Add rest of ingredients. Mix well and serve warm.

The Trial.

MRS. QUACKO DUCK came to the trial. Willy Nilly in her one-and-a-half cylinder duck coupe, and the other Ducks sat on her lap. They perched on the running board or on top of the car, while some waddled all the distance to the town where the trial would take place.

Top Notch, the Rooster, came along, and so did Flotilla Bottle, the little girl who had made all these creatures her friends. They turned Tuesday from the court room, and soon they saw the being led in by a keeper and ordered to sit on the floor not far from the Judge, who sat in a high chair before a desk. And now on a bench at one side sat the 12 people who were called the jury and who were to decide whether Rip was guilty.

Willy Nilly sat up front, but Flotilla Bottle and the animals sat at the back of the room. Soon it came time for the farmer to give his complaint about Rip.

"This dog, your Honor, has been stealing my chickens for some time. His owner, Willy Nilly, proved too, without meaning to do so. He said that for several days his dog had been laid up with sore paws. But on those several days none of my chickens were missing. And now the dog has been in jail for two nights and I haven't missed a single chicken since then."

Willy Nilly trembled when he heard this. He still believed that Rip was innocent, but everything seemed to be going against the dog.

"A dog like that is a nuisance," the people whispered so excitedly that the Judge pounded on the desk before him for quiet.

"Now we'll hear what Willy Nilly has to say," the Judge said. Willy Nilly's long legs shook terribly as he got up to speak.

Our city marshal, John Tietjen, returned Tuesday from Bellevue,

corn he picked on the old Tietjen

and the corn the thought came to my mind that this particular farm

was wonderful and many people
wonder what we are going to do with this great surplus of corn. We put the question to John and he certainly answered us in a clever way when he said: "We can be

HE HAS A HEART
THAT'S BIGGER'
ALL OUT-DOORS

WASHINGTON.—Congressman
Horace Walpole Frisby last night announced that he would like to send a Christmas remembrance to every man, woman and child in America.

"I mean just what I say," declared Frisby, "and there are no
'ifs' or 'ands' about it—no string attached in any shape, manner or form. But I cannot send a gift to everyone, simply because I do not know all the names and addresses. Do you realize that the population of our country is now more than 100,000,000? Nevertheless, I repeat my original proposition. I'd like to exchange gifts with every one. I'd like to send candy and oranges to all the tiny towns. Jewels and lingerie to all the ladies—regardless of color or creed.
Cigars and neckties for the men!
And I would, too, if I had the addresses! However, it is simpler for everybody else to catch the idea—
the Christmas spirit. My address is just plain Horace Frisby, general delivery, Washington, D. C.
Let's go, America!"

BOOST OR A RAP?
(Interview)

"The crowds on the streets," said Bishop Cross, "and the crowds in the subway seem to be as dense as they were when I visited New York a year ago."

FAMOUS LAST WORDS
It may be art, Mr. De Mille, but it ain't typical of the normal life of the greater part of our country.

With or without onions?

THE MATCH MAKER OF THE

WAS DELIGHTED
WHEN DOC
KEAN MARCHED
IN TO DISCUSS
A SOUT FOR GUNCOTTON GUS.
GUS ESTABLISHED HIMSELF AS A BOUT IN SPRINGFIELD A FEW WEEKS AGO
BY HIS SENSATIONAL
OVER KAWO GIVENS.

SURE, I CAN GET SPEARS... HE'S BOXING ON THE COAST BUT HE'S COME
HERE FOR THE BOUT... NOW WHY NOT
GIVENS OR GAINS? ...THEY'RE BETTER
CARDS AND GUNCOTTON WOULD LIKELY STOP EITHER ONE OF 'EM...

YEAH, I KNOW ALL THAT

OK... HE'S YOUR FIGHTER, NOT MINE... RED MAY BE POWDER PUFF PUNCHER BUT HE KNOWS HOW TO MAKE
MUGGS OF HARD HITTERS

WHEN RED STARTS BLOCKING
OFF THAT RIGHT AND JABING HIM, GUS IS GOING TO FEEL LIKE A CLAY DUCK IN A SHOOTING GALLERY... BUT FROM THEN ON WE'LL BE A LOT EASIER TO HANDLE
